AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

History. — The American Unitarian Association was formally organized on May 25, 1825. Before the year 1825 there existed in Boston a club of some twenty liberal-minded and public-spirited citizens organized for social and philanthropic purposes. This Club was in the habit of meeting fortnightly for the discussion of subjects relating to religion, morals, and civic order. At a meeting held in January, 1825, at the residence of Hon. Josiah Quincy, a discussion arose concerning the advisability of forming an association to publish books and tracts setting forth the opinions and principles of the liberal party in the Congregational churches. On motion of Andrews Norton a committee of the Club was appointed to consider the expediency of forming such an association. This committee reported at a meeting held in the vestry of the Federal Street Church on Jan. 27, 1825. There were present at the meeting William Ellery Channing, Henry Ware, Andrews Norton, Joseph May, Charles Lowell, Charles G. Loring, John G. Palfrey, James Walker, Robert Rantoul, Richard Sullivan, George Bond, Josiah Quincy, Joseph Tuckerman, Robert Waterson, Samuel A. Eliot, Jared Sparks, John Pierpont, David Reed, Aaron Bancroft, James Freeman, Joseph Story, Leverett Saltonstall and Stephen Higginson, with others prominent in the intellectual and social life of the city. These were men who were wont to lay more stress upon the virtues of breadth of mind, moderation, integrity, hospitality and generosity than upon doctrinal accuracy. They were not men who cared to try hazardous experiments, but they believed that the time had arrived for the organization of the liberal forces of the New England churches. The object of the proposed association was declared to be "to promote the growth of Christian truth and Christian charity, and the increase of religion in the land."

The proposal of the Club to organize a Unitarian Association was brought before the ministers of the Berry Street Conference on the morning of May 25, 1825. The Conference did not think it proper to take any action on the subject, but notice was given that a meeting of gentlemen would be held for the consideration of the proposition in the vestry of the Federal Street Church at four o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Henry Ware, D.D., was chosen moderator at this meeting; and after discussion it was voted "that it is expedient to form a new society to be called the American Unitarian Association." Rev. James Walker, Rev. Ezra S. Gannett, and Mr. Lewis Tappan were appointed a committee to carry the preceding vote into effect. On the following morning, at a meeting of which Rev. Nathaniel Thayer, D.D., was moderator, this committee reported a constitution which, with slight modifications, is still in force. The object of this Association was by this constitution declared to be to "diffuse the knowledge and promote the interest of pure Christianity." Dr. Channing was elected President, Rev. Ezra S. Gannett, Secretary, and Mr. Lewis Tappan, Treasurer. The Vice-Presidents were Joseph Story of Salem, Joseph Lyman of Northampton, Stephen Longfellow of Portland, and six others; while James Walker, Henry Ware, Jr., and Samuel Barrett were chosen an Executive Committee. Dr. Channing was obliged by ill-health to decline to serve; and Dr. Aaron Bancroft, of Worcester, was chosen President in his place. The Association thus organized has ever since been the executive arm of the Unitarian body. It was incorporated in 1847, and made a delegate body in 1885.

Purpose. — The objects of the Association as defined in the original report of the Committee on Organization are as follows:

First. — To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.

Second. — To produce union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.

Third. — To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.

Fourth. — To supply missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.

Fifth. — To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient, such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries or in aid of building churches.

Government. — The Association is governed by the following by-laws: —

Article I. Purpose.

The purpose of the American Unitarian Association shall be:

To diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure religion which, in accordance with the teaching of Jesus, is summed up in love to God and love to man;

To encourage sympathy and co-operation among religious liberals;

And to strengthen the churches which unite in the Association for more and better work for the Kingdom of God.

The Association recognizes that its constituency is congregational in tradition and polity, and that nothing in these By-Laws is to be construed as an authoritative test.

Article II. Organization Members.

Churches and other religious, educational, and philanthropic societies which make annual contributions to the Association shall be members of the Association. Churches and organizations not members of the Association shall become such whenever their contributions are received and have been accepted by the Board of Directors. Each member church shall be entitled to be represented at all meetings of the Association by its minister or ministers and two accredited lay delegates for the first fifty voting members or fractional part thereof and by one additional delegate for each additional fifty voting members, chosen during the year at any regular or special meeting; all other member societies shall be represented by the President and two other accredited delegates, only, chosen as aforesaid. A contribution must be placed in the hands of the officers of the Association on or before April 30, to entitle a church or other society to be represented in the following annual meeting.

Article III. Individual Life and Associate Members.

A subscription of fifty dollars shall constitute a person a member of this Association for life, but no church or other society shall be entitled to the representation set forth in Article II by virtue of any subscription used for the creation of life members. No person constituted a life member after the first day of May, 1925, shall have the right to vote; but nothing herein provided shall be construed to affect the rights or privileges of life members duly constituted as such before the first day of May, 1925.

A subscription of one dollar or more shall constitute a person an associate member of this Association. Associate membership shall not carry the right to vote.

Article IV. Honorary Vice-Presidents and Members.

The Board of Directors may by unanimous vote at a regular meeting elect honorary life members of this Association who shall have the rights and privileges of accredited delegates. Such elections shall be by ballot and nominations shall lie over one month. The number of such honorary life members shall not exceed twenty-five.

The Board of Directors may by unanimous vote at any regularly called Board Meeting nominate and at any regularly called meeting thereafter may elect one or more honorary Vice-Presidents, ex officiis, to be chosen exclusively from among the chief officers of the organized Unitarian or allied church groups in other countries.

Article V. Officers and Directors.

The officers shall be a President; one or more administrative Vice-Presidents; and eight (8) regional Vice-Presidents, one of whom at the time of his election shall be from Northern New England, one from Southern New England, one from the Middle Atlantic States, one from the Southern States, one from the Central West, one from the Rocky Mountain States, one from the Pacific Coast, and one from the Dominion of Canada; a Secretary, a Treasurer, who, with twenty-four (24) other persons, shall constitute the Board of Directors.

They shall be chosen by ballot at annual meetings, except that the Board of Directors may fill any vacancy to hold until the next annual meeting. The terms of office shall be as follows: the President, administrative Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, and the Treasurer, for four years; eighteen (18) of the directors of whom not less than nine shall be laymen, not less than three shall be women and not less than five shall be ministers, for three years, one-third to be elected annually; all other officers for one year.

Article VI. Quorum and Special Meetings.

The Board of Directors shall meet at least once in three months, ten members constituting a quorum, and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations, and authority to call special meetings of the Association whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee to have charge of such business as must be transacted between meetings of the Board of Directors, which Committee shall meet at the call of the President or Secretary.

Article VII. The Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate seal and of the funds, deeds and all other evidences of the property of the Association; shall receive moneys, make disbursements as directed, and otherwise transact all the business of the Association relating to its property and finances. He shall sign, execute and deliver all agreements, deeds and other instruments of conveyance, assignment, or transfer, in the name of the American Unitarian Association, which shall be under the seal of the Association. He shall have authority to sell, with the approval of any two other members of the Finance Committee, any stocks or other personal property owned by the Association.

Article VIII. Meetings of the Association.

The annual meeting of the Association shall be held in the month of May, in Boston, Massachusetts, of which due notice shall be given by circulars to the members of the Association and by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston at least ten days previous to the annual meeting.

The Association shall in the fall of each alternate year, beginning in 1925, hold a meeting away from Boston, but within the United States or the Dominion of Canada, to consider and act upon all matters to promote the objects of the Association.

No business transacted at any meeting other than an annual meeting, requiring the appropriation of money, shall become effective until ratified by the Board of Directors or the Association at its next annual meeting.

Article IX. Nomination of Officers.

Nominations for officers shall be made as follows:

A. The Board of Directors shall nominate the President, the administrative Vice-Presidents, the Secretary and the Treasurer at a meeting when these officers shall not be present or entitled to vote.

B. The Unitarian Ministerial Union, the Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women, the Unitarian Laymen's League and the Young People's Religious Union shall each have the right to nominate one director to serve for one year.

C. The Nominating Committee as hereinafter set forth shall nominate one director to serve for one year to represent all societies and agencies of primary interest to the Association or its constituent members, which are dedicated to the social expression of religion.

D. The Nominating Committee as hereinafter set forth shall nominate one director to serve for one year to represent all schools, colleges and other educational agencies of primary interest to the Association or its constituent members.

E. The other eighteen directors, of whom one third shall be chosen annually for three years, and all other officers qualified to be members of the Board of Directors shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee chosen as the Association shall from time to time determine.

Nominations for any and all officers and directors may be made through nomination papers signed by fifty adult voting members, of whom not more than five shall be members of any one constituent church, and such nominations when reported to the Secretary of the Nominating Committee not less than sixty days prior to any annual meeting shall be placed upon the official ballot for said meeting.

Article X.

An amendment of these By-Laws proposed at one annual meeting may be adopted at the next if the majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

GENERAL ALLIANCE

General Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women.—The objects of the General Alliance are: —

1. Primarily to quicken religious life, and to bring Alliance women into closer acquaintance, co-operation and fellowship.

2. To promote local organizations of women for missionary and denominational work, and to bring the same into association.

3. To collect and disseminate information regarding all matters of interest to the denomination.

4. To devise ways and means for more efficient usefulness.

Mrs. Thomas G. Rees, President; Miss Bertha Langmaid, Secretary; Miss Louise Brown, Treasurer; Miss Helen W. Greenwood, Executive Secretary.

All communications should be addressed to 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

LAYMEN'S LEAGUE

Unitarian Laymen's League. — The general purposes of the League are:—

To promote the worship of God and the love and service of mankind, in the spirit of Jesus.

To recruit the man power of the Unitarian denomination in support of all its churches.

To so arouse the men of America that they shall give united, intelligent, effective support, under the leadership of the church, to every wise, cooperative activity — religious, social, civic and moral.

Herbert C. Parsons, Boston, Mass., President; Henry D. Sharpe, Providence, R. I., Treasurer; Malcolm C. Rees, Boston, Mass., Administrative Vice-President; Ival McPeak, Braintree, Mass., Secretary.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S RELIGIOUS UNION

The Young People's Religious Union. — The objects of the Union are: (a) to foster the religious life; (b) to bring the young people of our several churches into closer relations with one another; (c) to spread rational views of religion and to put into practice such principles of life and duty as tend to uplift mankind. The cardinal principles of the Union are truth, worship and service.

Any young people's society may become a member of the Union, by affirming in writing its sympathy with the general objects of the Union, by sending to the Secretary a list of its officers, and by making a contribution to the Union. Member societies are entitled to representation at all business meetings during the fiscal year by three delegates.

Bradford E. Gale, President; Elizabeth L. Kennedy, Secretary; Horace B. Robinson, Treasurer; Winthrop M. Southworth, Executive Secretary.

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR LIBERAL CHRISTIANITY AND RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

The purpose of the Association is: To open and maintain communications with free Christian groups in all lands who are striving to unite religion and liberty, and to increase fellowship and cooperation among them.

To bring into closer union the historical liberal churches, the liberal elements in all churches and isolated congregations and workers for religious freedom.

To draw into the same fellowship other religious groups throughout the world which are in essential agreement with our ways of thinking.

The Association is a continuation of the International Congress, organized in Boston, Mass., May 25, 1900, and reorganized in the summer of 1930, in Arnhem, Holland. The Association plans for definite dates and meetings and a delegate membership. The Executive Secretary, to whom all correspondence should be addressed, is Dr. L. J. van Holk, 27 Nieuwe Gracht, Utrecht, Holland.

WITH THEIR ADDRESSES

Under the heading "Settled" are given for convenience the dates at which a few who were not duly installed began their present service, and also the dates at which a few whose work is closely akin to pastoral service began their work.

Those ministers for whom no date stands under "Settled" were without settlement at the date of the preparation of this list (September 1, 1933).

NECROLOGY

JOSEPH PEASE SHEAFE

Rev. Joseph Pease Sheafe died in Universal, Pa., July 25, 1932. He was born October 5, 1848, in Charlestown, Mass. He received the degree of B.A. from Tufts College in 1871 and the degree of M.A. in 1874. After graduating from the Harvard Divinity School in 1873 he was ordained to the Unitarian ministry in South Natick, Mass., in 1874, and served as minister of the First Unitarian Church until 1885. From 1886 to 1891 he was minister of the church in Dover, N. H. In 1895 he became minister of the church in Harvard, Mass., where he served for fifteen years. On his retirement he went to live with his son in Newcomerstown, Ohio, and later to Universal, Pa., where he died.

CHARLES WILLIAM PORTER-SHIRLEY

Rev. Charles William Porter-Shirley died in Providence, R. I., August 19, 1932, following a surgical operation. He was born in Chesterfield, England, June 19, 1879. He graduated from Manchester College, Oxford, from which he received the degree of master of arts. Later he studied at the University of Heidelberg. He was ordained to the Methodist ministry in 1905. His first parish was in Southport, England. From there he went to Nova Scotia where he served as minister of several Methodist churches.

In 1916 Mr. Porter-Shirley accepted a call to the First Parish Church of Barre, Mass., and joined the Unitarian Fellowship. After two years he went to Dayton, Ohio, as director of social and educational activities on the flood prevention work of the Miami Conservancy District. He returned to the ministry in 1919, serving Unitarian churches in Geneseo, Ill., Attleboro, Mass., and Bell Street Chapel, Providence, R. I. In the latter he held a joint fellowship with the Universalist denomination. He was an enthusiast for the cause of labor. A careful student of sociology, much of his thought and energy was devoted to problems of labor and labor legislation.

Besides his widow, who was Eva Latitia Davis, Mr. Porter-Shirley leaves a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Eva Brown, and three sons, Karl, Frank Lyall and Alder.

DUDLEY HAYES FERRELL

Rev. Dudley Hayes Ferrell died at his home in Swampscott, Mass., September 15, 1932. He was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, January 29, 1879. Part of his boyhood was spent in Iowa. He attended Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill., and Tarkio College, Tarkio, Mo. Later Mr. Ferrell was a student at Princeton University where he received the degree of master of arts in 1902. He then studied in Princeton Theological Seminary. His first charge was at Slatington, Pa., in the Presbyterian Church, where he served from 1902 to 1904. At this time Mr. Ferrell withdrew from the Presbyterian Fellowship and became a Unitarian. For two years he was minister of the church in Natick, Mass. In 1906 he went to Unity Church,

Brockton, Mass., where he enjoyed a happy and fruitful ministry for twelve years. He was for two years minister of the Church of the Messiah in Montreal, Can., and in 1920 became minister of the church in Lynn, Mass

After a ministry of seven years in Lynn, Mr. Ferrell became actively engaged in the Masonic Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, of which he was relief commissioner. He was Grand Master of Massachusetts from 1923 to 1925. On November 1, 1931, he was installed as minister of the Second Church in Boston.

Mr. Ferrell is survived by his wife, who was Miss Flora Wells, of Boston, a daughter, Mrs. Carlton Blanchard, of New Haven, Conn., and three grandchildren.

ALFRED W. MARTIN

Rev. Alfred W. Martin died at his home in New York City on October 15, 1932. He was born in Cologne, Germany, in 1862, of Canadian parents. He was a graduate of McGill and Harvard Universities. After graduating from the Harvard Divinity School in 1886, he took charge of the mission Unitarian church at Tiverton, R. I. He was ordained in the Unitarian ministry at Chelsea, Mass., where he was pastor four years. Moving to the far West he founded the First Free Church of Tacoma, Wash., and later the First Free Church of Seattle, Wash., the fellowship of the latter church taking as its name the "Society for Universal Religion."

In 1907, after fifteen years in Tacoma, Mr. Martin came to New York to join the board of leaders of the New York Society for Ethical Culture and for twenty-five years he was a regular speaker on the Sunday platform of the New York Society as well as a frequent visitor to the Ethical Societies affiliated with the American Ethical Union.

The keynote of Mr. Martin's life was "appreciation." In all his delving into the sacred literatures of the other religions he was prompted by the desire to discover and preserve that which was worthy of permanence. Into the Ethical Culture Movement and into the cause of universal religion he poured his ripest thought and richest gifts.

NORMAN HILL NESBITT

Rev. Norman Hill Nesbitt died in Oakland, Calif., November 22, 1932. He was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, November 11, 1872. His father was John Nesbitt, famous water-color painter and member of the Royal Academy. His mother was the daughter of a Huguenot clergyman and sister of Prof. Frederic de Sumichrast, for many years head of the French Department in Harvard University. Dr. Nesbitt received the degree of A.M. from the University of Edinburgh and the degree of Ph.D. from the University of London. The years 1904–1927 were spent in travel, journalism, lecturing, and teaching. He attained great success in teaching the French language. For a year he was professor of English in a college of the French Christian Brothers on the Island of Mauritius. Dr. Nesbitt was ordained in Tacoma, Wash., in 1904 and was settled as minister of the First Unitarian Church in Alameda, Calif., in 1927; upon his retirement, June 1, 1932, he was made minister emeritus.

Dr. Nesbitt is survived by his widow and three sons.

WILLIAM E. CLARK

Rev. William E. Clark died in Venore, Tenn., December 11, 1932. He was born July 12, 1872, and prepared for the ministry at Pierce City Baptist College, at Morgan Park Academy, and at Park College, in Missouri. His only Unitarian pastorate was in Memphis, Tenn., where he served from 1916 to 1921.

HOWARD NICHOLSON BROWN

Rev. Howard Nicholson Brown died at his home in Framingham, Mass., on December 16, 1932. He was born at Columbia, N. Y., May 11, 1849, the son of Rev.

Mather Church and Sarah A. (Nicholson) Brown. After studying for a year and a half at the Harvard Divinity School, Dr. Brown was ordained to the Unitarian ministry on May 8, 1872, by the church at Ilion, N. Y., and ministered to this parish for a year. In 1873 he was installed as minister of the First Parish Church of Brookline, Mass., where he had a very happy pastorate of twenty-two years. In 1895 he was called to King's Chapel, Boston, and began a ministry which continued with notable success for twenty-eight years. In 1923 he became minister emeritus.

Dr. Brown received the honorary degree of S.T.D. from Meadville Theological School in 1913. He was at one time president of the board of trustees of The Christian Register and was the author of several books and many essays.

In 1872 Dr. Brown married Inez A. Wicks, of Trenton, N. J., who died several years ago. The surviving members of the family are two daughters, Mary Louise Brown, the treasurer of the General Alliance, and Sarah Nicholson Brown, both of whom lived with their father, and a son, Howard N. Brown, a Boston lawyer.

CHARLES WENTWORTH BUCK

Rev. Charles W. Buck died in Cambridge, Mass., January 23, 1933. He was nearing the age of one hundred and was believed to be the oldest graduate of Amherst College at the time of his death. He was born in Hampden, Me., August 19, 1833. He spent two years at Harvard College as an under-graduate, between 1851 and 1853, and completed his course at Amherst which graduated him with a bachelor of arts degree in 1855. In 1862 he graduated from the Meadville Theological School and was ordained in 1863. He was minister of the First Unitarian Church in Fall River, Mass., from 1863 to 1868, and of the First Unitarian Society in Portland, Me., from 1868 to 1879.

ALEXANDER T. BOWSER

Rev. Alexander T. Bowser died March 14, 1933, at the home of his son, Robert Bowser, in Concord, Mass. Mr. Bowser was born in Sackville, N. B., February 20, 1848, the son of Robert and Janet (Kirk) Bowser. He was graduated from Harvard in 1877 and from the Divinity School in 1880. He was ordained to the Unitarian ministry at St. Louis, Mo., in 1881, and thereafter served parishes at Evansville, Ind., Hingham, Mass., Toronto, Can., Newton Centre, Mass., Wilmington, Del., Atlanta, Ga., Richmond, Va., and Hyde Park, Mass. He continued his pastoral services at the latter place from 1918 to 1927, when he retired and was made minister emeritus.

Mr. Bowser had lived in Cambridge, Mass., for several years, going to Concord upon the death of his wife about six weeks prior to his own. There is a second son, Henry R. Bowser, of Wellesley Hills, Mass., and two grandchildren.

LORENZO DARWIN COCHRANE

Rev. Lorenzo Darwin Cochrane died in East Bolton, Mass., February 25, 1933. He was born in Saline, Mich., November 27, 1854. He graduated from the Meadville Theological School in 1888 and was ordained at Littleton, N. H., August 18, 1889, having served the church as minister since June of the preceding year. He remained in Littleton until 1892. His later pastorates were: Ellsworth, Me., 1892–1895; Bar Harbor, Me., 1895–1896; Perry, Iowa, 1896–1898; East Lexington, Mass., 1898–1905.

For the last twenty-eight years of his life Mr. Cochrane conducted a successful farm in Bolton, Mass. His wife, Cora Sexton Cochrane, who survives him, was graduated from Meadville Theological School in 1890 and was closely associated with him in the work of his several churches.

CLIFTON MERRITT GRAY

Rev. Clifton Merritt Gray died in Topeka, Kan., on May 2, 1933. He was born in Cape Rozier, Me., Sept. 10, 1873. His boyhood was spent on his father's coasting schooner and as one has said of him, "The tang, the freedom, and the cleansing spray of the sea followed him always." He graduated at the Meadville Theological School in 1898 and did graduate work at the Harvard Divinity School the following year. In the same year he was ordained in King's Chapel, Boston. He was minister at Millbury, Mass., for two years; at Charleston, S. C., for twenty years; and at Topeka, Kan., for twelve years. "His creed was in his deeds and his life was a living testimony to the luminous and lasting quality of his faith."

FRED ALBAN WEIL

Rev. Fred Alban Weil died in Portland, Ore., June 7, 1933. He was born in North Andover, Mass., May 7, 1874, the son of Louis and Anna Moore Weil. Graduating from Phillips Andover Academy in 1892, he received his divinity degree from Meadville Theological School in 1901 and was ordained to the Unitarian ministry in that year. His pastorates were: Third Unitarian Church, Chicago, 1904–1907; Bellingham, Wash., 1907–1917; Denver, Colo., 1917–1920; Quincy, Mass., 1920–1929; Salem, Ore., 1930–1933. While in Bellingham he was president of the Associated Charities, and in Denver he was president of the Philosophic Society. In 1905 Mr. Weil married Ellen Smith Eliot, daughter of Rev. Thomas Lamb and Henrietta R. Eliot, who survives him. There are two children, Thomas Eliot and Janet Hobart Weil.

SILAS WRIGHT SUTTON

Rev. Silas Wright Sutton died in Lamoine, Me., June 8, 1933. He was born in Warwick, N. Y., January 20, 1850. He was graduated from Tufts College in 1872 and from the Divinity School in 1875. He was ordained to the Universalist ministry at Racine, Wis., in October, 1875, and served as minister of several Universalist churches in Wisconsin and New York. His first Unitarian pastorate was in Brooklyn, Conn., where he was located from 1889 to 1891. His later pastorates were: Trenton, N. Y., 1892–1893; Athol, Mass., 1894–1901; Ellsworth, Me., 1902–1907. He retired from the active ministry in 1907 and since 1911 had been living in Lamoine with his daughter and devoted companion, Miss Eleanor Sutton.

ELMER SEVERANCE FORBES

Rev. Elmer S. Forbes died in Plattsburg, N. Y., July 2, 1933. He was born in Westboro, Mass., September 12, 1860, the son of Baxter and Caroline (Severance) Forbes. He graduated from Amherst in 1881 and was ordained to the Episcopal ministry. He was rector of St. Mary's Church at Haledon, N. J., and assistant vicar and later rector of St. John's Church in Jersey City. In 1908 he resigned from the Episcopal ministry and became a Unitarian. From 1908 to 1925 he was Secretary of the Department of Community Service of the American Unitarian Association and was later Editor of the Unitarian Year Book. In 1890 he married Sallie L. Fleming, of Jersey City, who survives him. He leaves also a daughter, Mrs. Harold B. Hayden, of Plattsburg, N. Y., and a son, Robert L. Forbes of Honolulu. The family home was in Weston, Mass.

JOSIAH COLEMAN KENT

Rev. Josiah Coleman Kent died in Marbiehead, Mass., July 11, 1933. He was born in Marblehead, January 21, 1866. Graduating from the Meadville Theological School in 1895, he was ordained to the Unitarian ministry in Northboro, Mass., January 1, 1896. He was minister of the First Unitarian Church in Northboro for twenty-five years and of the Nantucket Unitarian Church for nine years. Retiring in 1931, he lived for a time in Elmwood, Mass., later moving to Marblehead. He was a Mason, holding membership in both the Westboro and the Nantucket Lodges. He was unmarried.

THOMAS PATRICK BYRNES

Rev. Thomas P. Byrnes died in Long Beach, Calif., July 22, 1933. He was born in Jersey City, N. J., March 16, 1861. He was graduated from Oberlin College in 1884, from Meadville Theological School in 1887, and was ordained in 1888. His first pastorate was at Geneseo, Ill., where he remained until 1890, going from there to Humboldt, Ia. Later pastorates were at Manistee and Kalamazoo, Mich.; Erie, Pa.; Birmingham, Ala.; Oklahoma City, Okla., and Long Beach, Calif. From 1905 to 1915 he made lecture tours to various parts of the country. While his chief interest was in the realm of metaphysics, he was a keen student of present-day problems, both national and international. He was a member of the Masonic Order and of the Knights of Pythias. He is survived by his widow, Ida M. Byrnes, and a daughter, Mrs. Rosalind Mervin, of West Newton, Mass.

STATISTICS

No statistics are included from starred churches or summer congregations; the former because they are inactive, and the latter because most of the attendants are from other churches and their inclusion would pad the figures unduly. Preaching stations are not included in the list of churches, nor their figures in the pages of statistics. The returns from a few federated churches include members of other bodies but the number is small and does not materially change the totals. These figures are also included in the year book of other denominations represented in each federation.

(x) Indicates that the figures listed are for 1932–1933.

(z) Indicates that the figures listed are for 1931–1932.

Based on the average constituency and membership of the churches reporting (see summary, page 131), the constituency of the 384 active Unitarian churches is 137,307 and the membership is 64,516.

Since the publication of the last Year Book fifteen ministers have died and twelve have withdrawn from the fellowship. Eight names have been added to the regular list, including one minister who has been transferred from the affiliated list. The number now on the regular list is 443. The affiliated list has been increased by four and now contains the names of forty-nine ministers.

May 25, 1825. The Conference did not think it proper to take any action on the subject, but notice was given that a meeting of gentlemen would be held for the consideration of the proposition in the vestry of the Federal Street Church at four o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Henry Ware, D.D., was chosen moderator at this meeting; and after discussion it was voted "that it is expedient to form a new society to be called the American Unitarian Association." Rev. James Walker, Rev. Ezra S. Gannett, and Mr. Lewis Tappan were appointed a committee to carry the preceding vote into effect. On the following morning, at a meeting of which Rev. Nathaniel Thayer, D.D., was moderator, this committee reported a constitution which, with slight modifications, is still in force. The object of this Association was by this constitution declared to be to "diffuse the knowledge and promote the interest of pure Christianity." Dr. Channing was elected President, Rev. Ezra S. Gannett, Secretary, and Mr. Lewis Tappan, Treasurer. The Vice-Presidents were Joseph Story of Salem, Joseph Lyman of Northampton, Stephen Longfellow of Portland, and six others; while James Walker, Henry Ware, Jr., and Samuel Barrett were chosen an Executive Committee. Dr. Channing was obliged by ill-health to decline to serve; and Dr. Aaron Bancroft of Worcester was chosen President in his place. The Association thus organized has ever since been the executive arm of the Unitarian body. It was incorporated in 1847, and made a delegate body in 1885.

Purpose. — The objects of the Association as defined in the original report of the Committee on Organization are as follows:

First. — To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.

Second. — To produce union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.

Third. — To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.

Fourth. — To supply missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.

Fifth. — To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient, such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries or in aid of building churches.

Government. — The Association is governed by the following by-laws:—

Article I. Purpose.

The purpose of the American Unitarian Association shall be:

To diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure religion which, in accordance with the teaching of Jesus, is summed up in love to God and love to man;

To encourage sympathy and co-operation among religious liberals;

And to strengthen the churches which unite in the Association for more and better work for the Kingdom of God.

The Association recognizes that its constituency is congregational in tradition and polity, and that nothing in these By-Laws is to be construed as an authoritative test.

Article II. Organization Members.

Churches and other religious, educational, and philanthropic societies which make annual contributions to the Association shall be members of the Association. Churches and organizations not members of the Association shall become such whenever their contributions are received and have been accepted by the Board of Directors. Each member church shall be entitled to be represented at all meetings of the Association by its minister or ministers and two accredited lay delegates for the first fifty voting members or fractional part thereof and by one additional delegate for each additional fifty voting members, chosen during the year at any regular or special meeting; all other member societies shall be represented by the President and two other accredited delegates, only, chosen as aforesaid. A contribution must be placed in the hands of the officers of the Association on or before April 30, to entitle a church or other society to be represented in the following annual meeting.

Article III. Individual Life and Associate Members.

A subscription of fifty dollars shall constitute a person a member of this

Association for life, but no church or other society shall be entitled to the representation set forth in Article II by virtue of any subscription used for the creation of life members. No person constituted a life member after the first day of May, 1925, shall have the right to vote; but nothing herein provided shall be construed to affect the rights or privileges of life members duly constituted as such before the first day of May, 1925.

A subscription of one dollar or more shall constitute a person an associate member of this Association. Associate membership shall not carry the right to vote.

Article IV. Honorary Vice-Presidents and Members.

The Board of Directors may by unanimous vote at a regular meeting elect honorary life members of this Association who shall have the rights and privileges of accredited delegates. Such elections shall be by ballot and nominations shall lie over one month. The number of such honorary life members shall not exceed twenty-five.

The Board of Directors may by unanimous vote at any regularly called Board Meeting nominate and at any regularly called meeting thereafter may elect one or more honorary Vice-Presidents, ex officiis, to be chosen exclusively from among the chief officers of the organized Unitarian or allied church groups in other countries.

Article V. Officers and Directors.

The officers shall be a President; one or more administrative Vice-Presidents; and eight (8) regional Vice-Presidents, one of whom at the time of his election shall be from Northern New England, one from Southern New England, one from the Middle Atlantic States, one from the Southern States, one from the Central West, one from the Rocky Mountain States, one from the Pacific Coast, and one from the Dominion of Canada; a Secretary, a Treasurer, who, with twenty-four (24) other persons, shall constitute the Board of Directors.

They shall be chosen by ballot at annual meetings, except that the Board of Directors may fill any vacancy to hold until the next annual meeting. The terms of office shall be as follows: the President, administrative Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, and the Treasurer, for four years; eighteen (18) of the directors of whom not less than nine shall be laymen, not less than three shall be women and not less than five shall be ministers, for three years, one-third to be elected annually; all other officers for one year.

Article VI. Quorum and Special Meetings.

The Board of Directors shall meet at least once in three months, ten members constituting a quorum, and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations, and authority to call special meetings of the Association whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee to have charge of such business as must be transacted between meetings of the Board of Directors, which Committee shall meet at the call of the President or Secretary.

Article VII. The Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate seal and of the funds, deeds and all other evidences of the property of the Association; shall receive moneys, make disbursements as directed, and otherwise transact all the business of the Association relating to its property and finances. He shall sign, execute and deliver all agreements, deeds and other instruments of conveyance, assignment, or transfer, in the name of the American Unitarian Association, which shall be under the seal of the Association. He shall have authority to sell, with the approval of any two other members of the Finance Committee, any stocks or other personal property owned by the Association.

Article VIII. Meetings of the Association.

The annual meeting of the Association shall be held in the month of May, in Boston, Massachusetts, of which due notice shall be given by circulars to the members of the Association and by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston at least ten days previous to the annual meeting.

The Association shall in the fall of each alternate year, beginning in 1925, hold a meeting away from Boston, but within the United States or the Dominion of Canada, to consider and act upon all matters to promote the objects of the Association.

No business transacted at any meeting other than an annual meeting, requiring the appropriation of money, shall become effective until ratified by the Board of Directors or the Association at its next annual meeting.

Article IX. Nomination of Officers.

Nominations for officers shall be made as follows:

A. The Board of Directors shall nominate the President, the administrative Vice-Presidents, the Secretary and the Treasurer at a meeting when these officers shall not be present or entitled to vote.

B. The Unitarian Ministerial Union, the Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women, the Unitarian Laymen's League and the Young People's Religious Union shall each have the right to nominate one director to serve for one year.

C. The Nominating Committee as hereinafter set forth shall nominate one director to serve for one year to represent all societies and agencies of primary interest to the Association or its constituent members, which are dedicated to the social expression of religion.

D. The Nominating Committee as hereinafter set forth shall nominate one director to serve for one year to represent all schools, colleges and other educational agencies of primary interest to the Association or its constituent members.

E. The other eighteen directors, of whom one third shall be chosen annually for three years, and all other officers qualified to be members of the Board of Directors shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee chosen as the Association shall from time to time determine.

Nominations for any and all officers and directors may be made through nomination papers signed by fifty adult voting members, of whom not more than five shall be members of any one constituent church, and such nominations when reported to the Secretary of the Nominating Committee not less than sixty days prior to any annual meeting shall be placed upon the official ballot for said meeting.

Article X.

An amendment of these By-Laws proposed at one annual meeting may be adopted at the next if the majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

GENERAL ALLIANCE

General Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women. The objects of the General Alliance are:—

1. Primarily to quicken religious life, and to bring Alliance women into closer acquaintance, co-operation and fellowship.

2. To promote local organizations of women for missionary and denominational work, and to bring the same into association.

3. To collect and disseminate information regarding all matters of interest to the denomination.

4. To devise ways and means for more efficient usefulness.

Mrs. Thomas G. Rees, President; Miss Bertha Langmaid, Secretary; Miss Louise Brown, Treasurer; Miss Helen W. Greenwood, Executive Secretary.

All communications should be addressed to 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

LAYMEN'S LEAGUE

Unitarian Laymen's League. — The general purposes of the League are:—

To promote the worship of God and the love and service of mankind, in the spirit of Jesus.

To recruit the man power of the liberal churches in spreading the influence of liberal religion.

To so arouse the men of America that they shall give united, intelligent, effective support, under the leadership of the church, to every wise, co-operative activity — religious, social, civic and moral.

Herbert C. Parsons, Boston, Mass., President; Henry D. Sharpe, Providence, R. I., Treasurer; Ralph A. MacGilvra, Wellesley Hills, Mass., Secretary.

For further information, address the Unitarian Laymen's League, 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

MINISTERIAL UNION

Unitarian Ministerial Union. — Designed to welcome and assist those entering the liberal ministry, to protect the profession and parishes from incompetent and unworthy men, to promote ministerial fellowship, to contribute to the edification of its members, to provide an organization through which the ministers of our church may speak and act as a unit, and to assist in the diffusion of the gospel.

Membership in the Union is open to all ministers in the Unitarian Fellowship who sign a card of acceptance sent them, returnable to the Secretary.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S RELIGIOUS UNION

The Young People's Religious Union. — The objects of the Union are: (a) to foster the religious life; (b) to bring the young people of our several churches into closer relations with one another; (c) to spread rational views of religion and to put into practice such principles of life and duty as tend to uplift mankind. The cardinal principles of the Union are truth, worship and service.

Any young people's society may become a member of the Union, by affirming in writing its sympathy with the general objects of the Union, by sending to the Secretary a list of its officers, and by making a contribution to the Union. Member societies are entitled to representation at all business meetings during the fiscal year by three delegates.

Bradford E. Gale, President; Elizabeth L. Kennedy, Secretary; Warren W. Witherell, Treasurer; Winthrop M. Southworth, Jr., Executive Secretary.

Hon. Harold E. Sweet

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR LIBERAL CHRISTIANITY AND RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

The purpose of the Association is: To open and maintain communications with free Christian groups in all lands who are striving to unite religion and liberty, and to increase fellowship and co-operation among them.

To bring into closer union the historical liberal churches, the liberal elements in all churches and isolated congregations and workers for religious freedom.

To draw into the same fellowship other religious groups throughout the world which are in essential agreement with our ways of thinking.

The Association is a continuation of the International Congress, organized in Boston, Mass., May 25, 1900, and reorganized in the summer of 1930, in Arnhem, Holland. The Association plans for definite dates and meetings and a delegate membership. The Executive Secretary, to whom all correspondence should be addressed, is Dr. L. J. van Holk, 27 Nieuwe Gracht, Utrecht, Holland.

NECROLOGY

SAMUEL HAMLET

Rev. Samuel Hamlet died May 26, 1933. Born on December 1, 1847, in Cheltenham, England, he came to this country with his parents when he was seven years old, spending most of his early days in Hempstead, Long Island.

He was educated for the law and for some years practiced this profession in New York. He was assistant district attorney for Queen's County under Benjamin Downing. He gave up the law to become city editor of The Topeka Daily Capitol, Kansas, which post he held for eight years. His convictions leading him into the service of the Unitarian church, he entered The Meadville Theological School to complete his education for the ministry. He was pastor of churches in Brookfield, Mass., West Bridgewater, Mass., and Wolfeboro, N. H.

Mr. Hamlet had a natural ability for study and a wonderful mind for research work in every classic and scientific field. He was well known as a gifted speaker on many subjects far in advance of his day.

He is survived by his wife, a sister, and five brothers.

FRANCIS WATRY

Rev. Francis Watry died in Fullerton, Calif., on August 26, 1933. Born of Belgian parentage on August 25, 1853, his early life was spent in Wisconsin. He was trained for the Roman Catholic priesthood at Mount Calvary Preparatory Seminary, St. Francis Seminary near Milwaukee, Wis., and at St. John's University at St. Cloud, Minn., where he was ordained a priest in 1880.

After numerous ministries over churches in Minnesota and Oregon he sought fellowship with the Congregationalists. He entered the Congregational Seminary at Oakland, Calif., in 1893, and accepted his first Congregational pastorate a few months later.

In 1902 he joined the Unitarian Fellowship. He served the following Unitarian churches: Santa Cruz, Santa Ana, Long Beach and Pomona, Calif. He was pastor of the Pomona church when the United States entered the World War. His resolute attitude of internationalism at that time cost him the friendship of some of his followers. Others remained staunch supporters until his resignation from the church in 1928.

Mr. Watry is survived by his widow and a son and daughter.

MARMORA DEVOE MOODY

Dr. Marmora DeVoe Moody died in Seattle, Wash., on October 14, 1933, at the age of eighty-five. Dr. Moody was the first woman physician in Seattle. She was a graduate of The Meadville Theological School and one of the founders of the First Unitarian Church of Seattle. She practiced medicine in Seattle for more than twenty years, but at the time of her marriage to the late Dr. Milo M. Moody she retired and gave her attention to social and religious activities. She was one of the original members of the Century Club in Seattle.

EDMUND QUINCY SEWALL OSGOOD

Rev. Edmund Quincy Sewall Osgood died on December 28, 1933, at the home of his son in Cambridge, Mass., where he had lived for a year. The funeral service was conducted in the First Parish of Cohasset, Mass., where his father, Rev. Joseph Osgood, was minister for fifty-six years. Mr. Osgood was born in Cohasset on February 26, 1851. He was a descendant of Chief Justice Sewall and of Colonel Joseph Ward, who was on General Washington's staff.

Mr. Osgood held pastorates in the Unitarian churches in Plymouth, Grafton and Hyde Park, Mass., and Brattleboro, Vt. He served the latter church for thirty-five years.

In Brattleboro he was a member and chairman of the School Board, a member and later chairman of the board of trustees of the Brattleboro Retreat, a member and chairman of the board of trustees of the Home for the Aged and Infirm, a member of the board of trustees of the Brooks Free Library, and secretary and treasurer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. In recognition of his varied services in Brattleboro, the Osgood Infirmary was named for him. "His kind heart was moved by every instance of suffering, from the dumb animal kingdom to the unfortunate victims of the complexity of our social order."

He is survived by a son and daughter.

WILLIAM AUSTIN PRATT

Rev. William Austin Pratt, minister emeritus of the People's Church of Cedar Rapids, Ia., died March 7, 1934, at the home of friends in Sterling, Ill. Mr. Pratt was born on May 9, 1855, in North Weymouth, Mass. A graduate of St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y., he served Universalist and Unitarian churches in several places, including Cedar Rapids and Keokuk, Ia., and Jamestown, N. Y.

Since 1894 Mr. Pratt had organized and conducted the Pratt European tours, and shortly before his death had published a prospectus announcing a series of tours for the summer of 1934 in celebration of the fortieth successful year of his work. He preached and lectured constantly, and maintained his interest and wide reading in religious, historical, and foreign affairs.

He was a flower lover and made flowers his hobby, specializing in tulips. After his wife's death in 1932 he began a memorial garden in which he planted 5,000 tulip bulbs, lilies and other flowers. He frequently imported foreign varieties of tulips to beautify his gardens.

He is survived by a brother and a sister.

JOSEPH P. MacCARTHY

Rev. Joseph P. MacCarthy, Ph.D., died at his home in Belmont, Mass., on May 3, 1934. Born in Wakefield, Canada, on April 4, 1862, he was educated at Albion College, Northwestern University, Illinois Wesleyan, and the Harvard Divinity School. After practicing law in Illinois for a few years, he entered the Methodist ministry, later becoming identified with the Congregational denomination, and affiliating with the Unitarians about the beginning of the century. He held pastorates in Unitarian churches in Santa Rosa, Calif., Kalamazoo, Mich., Waltham, Mass., Passaic, N. J., and West Somerville, Mass.

He was a well-known lecturer on religious and literary subjects and author of the books, "Mary Magdalene" and "The Philosophy of Religion". When called to the East, he became an active member of the Browning Societies of New York and Boston, the Boston Ruskin Club, and the Boston branch of the American Poetry Association. During his active ministry and after his retirement he represented the American Unitarian Association in missionary work.

He had traveled extensively in Europe, and served the British Y.M.C.A. and the British Unitarian Association for several months during the World War.

He is survived by his wife, a son and two daughters.

FRANCIS RAYMOND STURTEVANT

Rev. Francis Raymond Sturtevant, minister of the First Unitarian Church of Baltimore, Md., since 1925, died June 28, 1934, at the age of fifty-seven. Mr. Sturtevant went to Baltimore from Taunton, Mass., where he had served the First Congregational Society (Unitarian) for fourteen years. Previous to that he was minister of The Channing Church in Dorchester, Mass.

Mr. Sturtevant was a director of the American Unitarian Association and for several years was clerk and a trustee of The Christian Register. During the World War he was a four-minute speaker, and in 1918 he served as secretary at Camp Devens.

"One saw in him the finer traditions of his calling. He was a genuine man of God, quiet, unassuming, of equable temper, modest and wholly sincere."

He is survived by his wife and four children.

STATISTICS

No statistics are included from starred churches or summer congregations; the former because they are inactive, and the latter because most of the attendants are from other churches and their inclusion would pad the figures unduly. Preaching stations are not included in the list of churches, nor their figures in the pages of statistics. The returns from a few federated churches include members of other bodies but the number is small and does not materially change the totals. These figures are also included in the year book of other denominations represented in each federation.

(x) Indicates that the figures listed are for 1933-1934.

(z) Indicates that the figures listed are for 1932-1933.

Based on the average constituency and membership of the churches reporting (see summary, page 137), the constituency of the 377 active Unitarian churches is 124,410 and the membership is 66,352.

Since the publication of the last Year Book seven ministers have died and eighteen have withdrawn from the fellowship. Thirty-two names have been added to the regular list, including one minister who has been transferred from the affiliated list. The number now on the regular list is 451. The affiliated list has been increased by twenty-six and now contains the names of seventy-one ministers.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

History. — The American Unitarian Association was formally organized on May 25, 1825. Before the year 1825 there existed in Boston a club of some twenty liberal-minded and public-spirited citizens organized for social and philanthropic purposes. This Club was in the habit of meeting fortnightly for the discussion of subjects relating to religion, morals, and civic order. At a meeting held in January, 1825, at the residence of Hon. Josiah Quincy, a discussion arose concerning the advisability of forming an association to publish books and tracts setting forth the opinions and principles of the liberal party in the Congregational churches. On motion of Andrews Norton a committee of the Club was appointed to consider the expediency of forming such an association. This committee reported at a meeting held in the vestry of the Federal Street Church on January 27, 1825. There were present at the meeting William Ellery Channing, Henry Ware, Andrews Norton, Joseph May, Charles Lowell, Charles G. Loring, John G. Palfrey, James Walker, Robert Rantoul, Richard Sullivan, George Bond, Josiah Quincy, Joseph Tuckerman, Robert Waterson, Samuel A. Eliot, Jared Sparks, John Pierpont, David Reed, Aaron Bancroft, James Freeman, Joseph Story, Leverett Saltonstall and Stephen Higginson, with others prominent in the intellectual and social life of the city. These were men who were wont to lay more stress upon the virtues of breadth of mind, moderation, integrity, hospitality and generosity than upon doctrinal accuracy. They were not men who cared to try hazardous experiments, but they believed that the time had arrived for the organization of the liberal forces of the New England churches. The object of the proposed association was declared to be "to promote the growth of Christian truth and Christian charity, and the increase of religion in the land."

The proposal of the Club to organize a Unitarian Association was brought before the ministers of the Berry Street Conference on the morning of

May 25, 1825. The Conference did not think it proper to take any action on the subject, but notice was given that a meeting of gentlemen would be held for the consideration of the proposition in the vestry of the Federal Street Church at four o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Henry Ware, D.D., was chosen moderator at this meeting; and after discussion it was voted "that it is expedient to form a new society to be called the American Unitarian Association." Rev. James Walker, Rev. Ezra S. Gannett, and Mr. Lewis Tappan were appointed a committee to carry the preceding vote into effect. On the following morning, at a meeting of which Rev. Nathaniel Thayer, D.D., was moderator, this committee reported a constitution which, with slight modifications, is still in force. The object of this Association was by this constitution declared to be to "diffuse the knowledge and promote the interest of pure Christianity." Dr. Channing was elected President, Rev. Ezra S. Gannett, Secretary, and Mr. Lewis Tappan, Treasurer. The Vice-Presidents were Joseph Story of Salem, Joseph Lyman of Northampton, Stephen Longfellow of Portland, and six others; while James Walker, Henry Ware, Jr., and Samuel Barrett were chosen an Executive Committee. Dr. Channing was obliged by ill-health to decline to serve; and Dr. Aaron Bancroft of Worcester was chosen President in his place. The Association thus organized has ever since been the executive arm of the Unitarian body. It was incorporated in 1847, and made a delegate body in 1885.

Purpose. — The objects of the Association as defined in the original report of the Committee on Organization are as follows:

First. — To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.

Second. — To produce union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.

Third. — To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.

Fourth. — To supply missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.

Fifth. — To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient, such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries or in aid of building churches.

Government. — The Association is governed by the following by-laws:—

Article I. Purpose.

The purpose of the American Unitarian Association shall be:

To diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure religion which, in accordance with the teaching of Jesus, is summed up in love to God and love to man;

To encourage sympathy and co-operation among religious liberals;

And to strengthen the churches which unite in the Association for more and better work for the Kingdom of God.

The Association recognizes that its constituency is congregational in tradition and polity, and that nothing in these by-laws is to be construed as an authoritative test.

Article II. Organization Members.

Churches and other religious, educational, and philanthropic societies which make annual contributions to the Association shall be members of the Association. Churches and organizations not members of the Association shall become such whenever their contributions are received and have been accepted by the Board of Directors. Each member church shall be entitled to be represented at all meetings of the Association by its minister or ministers and two accredited lay delegates for the first fifty voting members or fractional part thereof and by one additional delegate for each additional fifty voting members, chosen during the year at any regular or special meeting; all other member societies shall be represented by the President and two other accredited delegates, only, chosen as aforesaid. A contribution must be placed in the hands of the officers of the Association on or before April 30, to entitle a church or other society to be represented in the following annual meeting.

Article III. Individual Life and Associate Members.

A subscription of fifty dollars shall constitute a person a member of this

Association for life, but no church or other society shall be entitled to the representation set forth in Article II by virtue of any subscription used for the creation of life members. No person constituted a life member after the first day of May, 1925, shall have the right to vote; but nothing herein provided shall be construed to affect the rights or privileges of life members duly constituted as such before the first day of May, 1925.

A subscription of one dollar or more shall constitute a person an associate member of this Association. Associate membership shall not carry the right to vote.

Article IV. Honorary Vice-Presidents and Members.

The Board of Directors may by unanimous vote at a regular meeting elect honorary life members of this Association who shall have the rights and privileges of accredited delegates. Such elections shall be by ballot and nominations shall lie over one month. The number of such honorary life members shall not exceed twenty-five.

The Board of Directors may by unanimous vote at any regularly called Board Meeting nominate and at any regularly called meeting thereafter may elect one or more honorary Vice-Presidents, ex officiis, to be chosen exclusively from among the chief officers of the organized Unitarian or allied church groups in other countries.

Article V. Officers and Directors.

The officers shall be a President; one or more administrative Vice-Presidents; and eight (8) regional Vice-Presidents, one of whom at the time of his election shall be from Northern New England, one from Southern New England, one from the Middle Atlantic States, one from the Southern States, one from the Central West, one from the Rocky Mountain States, one from the Pacific Coast, and one from the Dominion of Canada; a Secretary, a Treasurer, who, with twenty-four (24) other persons, shall constitute the Board of Directors.

They shall be chosen by ballot at annual meetings, except that the Board of Directors may fill any vacancy to hold until the next annual meeting. The terms of office shall be as follows: the President, administrative Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, and the Treasurer, for four years; eighteen (18) of the directors of whom not less than nine shall be laymen, not less than three shall be women and not less than five shall be ministers, for three years, one-third to be elected annually; all other officers for one year.

Article VI. Quorum and Special Meetings.

The Board of Directors shall meet at least once in three months, ten members constituting a quorum, and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations, and authority to call special meetings of the Association whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee to have charge of such business as must be transacted between meetings of the Board of Directors, which Committee shall meet at the call of the President or Secretary.

Article VII. The Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate seal and of the funds, deeds and all other evidences of the property of the Association; shall receive moneys, make disbursements as directed, and otherwise transact all the business of the Association relating to its property and finances. He shall sign, execute and deliver all agreements, deeds and other instruments of conveyance, assignment, or transfer, in the name of the American Unitarian Association, which shall be under the seal of the Association. He shall have authority to sell, with the approval of any two other members of the Finance Committee, any stocks or other personal property owned by the Association.

Article VIII. Meetings of the Association.

The annual meeting of the Association shall be held in the month of May, in Boston, Massachusetts, of which due notice shall be given by circulars to the members of the Association and by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston at least ten days previous to the annual meeting.

The Association shall in the fall of each alternate year, beginning in 1925, hold a meeting away from Boston, but within the United States or the Dominion of Canada, to consider and act upon all matters to promote the objects of the Association.

No business transacted at any meeting other than an annual meeting, requiring the appropriation of money, shall become effective until ratified by the Board of Directors or the Association at its next annual meeting.

Article IX. Nomination of Officers.

Nominations for officers shall be made as follows:

A. The Board of Directors shall nominate the President, the administrative Vice-Presidents, the Secretary and the Treasurer at a meeting when these officers shall not be present or entitled to vote.

B. The Unitarian Ministerial Union, the Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women, the Unitarian Laymen's League and the Young People's Religious Union shall each have the right to nominate one director to serve for one year.

C. The Nominating Committee as hereinafter set forth shall nominate one director to serve for one year to represent all societies and agencies of primary interest to the Association or its constituent members, which are dedicated to the social expression of religion.

D. The Nominating Committee as hereinafter set forth shall nominate one director to serve for one year to represent all schools, colleges and other educational agencies of primary interest to the Association or its constituent members.

E. The other eighteen directors, of whom one third shall be chosen annually for three years, and all other officers qualified to be members of the Board of Directors shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee chosen as the Association shall from time to time determine.

Nominations for any and all officers and directors may be made through nomination papers signed by fifty adult voting members, of whom not more than five shall be members of any one constituent church, and such nominations when reported to the Secretary of the Nominating Committee not less than sixty days prior to any annual meeting shall be placed upon the official ballot for said meeting.

Article X.

An amendment of these by-laws proposed at one annual meeting may be adopted at the next if the majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

COMMISSION OF APPRAISAL

The Commission was created by act of the annual meeting of the American Unitarian Association on May 22, 1934. The resolution provided that a Commission of Appraisal be immediately appointed to survey our work both in theory and practice, to appraise the methods now in use, and to recommend clarification of principles and changes in policy, program, and organization, wherever and however they may be necessary.

The Commission shall consist of seven persons of recognized qualification for the work, of whom at least five shall be members of our fellowship and none of whom shall be an officer of a denominational organization.

The Commission shall include in its survey the American Unitarian Association, the Unitarian Laymen's League, the General Alliance, the Unitarian Ministerial Union, the Young People's Religious Union, educational institutions and all other conferences and agencies in any way concerned with the work of our fellowship.

The personnel of the Commission is as follows:

Rev. F. M. Eliot, Chairman, St. Paul, Minn.; Rev. J. L. Adams, Wellesley Hills, Mass.; Professor W. P. Eaton, New Haven, Conn.; Dr. E. C. Lindeman, New York, N. Y.; F. G. Melcher, Montclair, N. J.; Professor J. B. Pratt, Williamstown, Mass.; Mrs. Aurelia H. Reinhardt, Oakland, Calif.; Chancellor S. P. Capen, Consultant, Buffalo, N. Y.; H. Paul Douglass, Director of Studies, New York, N. Y.

The Commission made a preliminary report at the annual meeting of the Association on May 21, 1935. It continues its work.

GENERAL ALLIANCE

General Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women. The objects of the General Alliance are:—

1. Primarily to quicken religious life, and to bring Alliance women into closer acquaintance, co-operation and fellowship.

2. To promote local organizations of women for missionary and denominational work, and to bring the same into association.

3. To collect and disseminate information regarding all matters of interest to the denomination.

4. To devise ways and means for more efficient usefulness.

Mrs. Thomas G. Rees, President; Mrs. H. B. Hartwell, Secretary; Miss Louise Brown, Treasurer; Miss Helen W. Greenwood, Executive Secretary.

All communications should be addressed to 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

LAYMEN'S LEAGUE

Unitarian Laymen's League. — The general purposes of the League are:—

To promote the worship of God and the love and service of mankind, in the spirit of Jesus.

To recruit the man power of the liberal churches in spreading the influence of liberal religion.

To so arouse the men of America that they shall give united, intelligent, effective support, under the leadership of the church, to every wise, co-operative activity — religious, social, civic and moral.

Frank W. Scott, Newton Centre, Mass., President; Henry D. Sharpe, Providence, R. I., Treasurer; Ralph A. MacGilvra, Wellesley Hills, Mass., Secretary.

For further information, address the Unitarian Laymen's League, 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

MINISTERIAL UNION

Unitarian Ministerial Union. — Designed to welcome and assist those entering the liberal ministry, to protect the profession and parishes from incompetent and unworthy men, to promote ministerial fellowship, to contribute to the edification of its members, to provide an organization through which the ministers of our church may speak and act as a unit, and to assist in the diffusion of the gospel.

Membership in the Union is open to all ministers in the Unitarian Fellowship who sign a card of acceptance sent them, returnable to the Secretary.

Rev. Ernest S. Meredith, Watertown, Mass., President; Rev. Arthur W. Olsen, Billerica, Mass., Secretary-Treasurer.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Harvard Divinity School, Cambridge, Mass.—This institution has now resumed its original name and is the successor of the Harvard Divinity School organized about 1816, founded and endowed by Unitarians.

The Divinity School is an organic department of Harvard University, is subject to no denominational control, and includes, in its faculty and student body, representatives of the more important denominations.

Faculty. — James Bryant Conant, Ph.D., LL.D., President; Willard Learoyd Sperry, D.D., Dean and Plummer Professor of Christian Morals.

The Meadville Theological School (founded 1844), 5701 Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago, Ill. — A graduate school, specializing in preparation for the Liberal ministry, especially in the Unitarian Church. Association with the Divinity School of the University of Chicago and affiliated institutions opens to its students all the resources of a great center of education. The independent position of the School and its intimate common life make possible an educational plan adapted to individual needs and interest.

For information apply to the President of the School, Rev. Sydney B. Snow, D.D., 5701 Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago.

Pacific Unitarian School for the Ministry, Berkeley, Calif. — The school works in co-operation with the Pacific School of Religion and the University of California, and is thus able to offer combined facilities for the study of the several branches of theology and of sociology among the best in the country.

For further information, address the President of the School, William S. Morgan, Ph.D., S.T.D., 2400 Allston Way, Berkeley.

PUBLICATIONS

The Christian Register is the chief Unitarian Weekly. It is owned and published by a corporation known as The Christian Register, Incorporated. By its history, its traditions, and the conviction of its editor and publishers, it is committed to the principles which characterize the Unitarian churches of America. It aims to make religion a source of strength, comfort, and instruction in the common life of man. The editorial office is at 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass. Subscription, $3.00 per year.

The Wayside Community Pulpit. — The Wayside Pulpit Committee appointed by the Directors of the American Unitarian Association has united with a committee appointed by the Trustees of the Universalist General Convention to issue throughout the year a regular series of bulletins in addition to the special Unitarian series issued during three months of the year. Of this united service Rev. Charles H. Pennoyer and Rev. Charles R. Joy are the editors, and in addition to the Unitarian committee members listed on page 6 the following persons represent the Universalist Churches:

Rev. Walter J. Coates
Rev. Effie McC. Jones
Mrs. Vivian L. Little
Rev. William H. Murray
Rev. Willard C. Selleck
Rev. Clarence R. Skinner
Rev. Ashley A. Smith
Hon. Harold E. Sweet

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR LIBERAL CHRISTIANITY AND RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

The purpose of the Association is: To open and maintain communications with free Christian groups in all lands who are striving to unite religion and liberty, and to increase fellowship and co-operation among them.

To bring into closer union the historical liberal churches, the liberal elements in all churches and isolated congregations and workers for religious freedom.

To draw into the same fellowship other religious groups throughout the world which are in essential agreement with our ways of thinking.

The Association is a continuation of the International Congress, organized in Boston, Mass., May 25, 1900, and reorganized in the summer of 1930, in Arnhem, Holland. The Association plans for definite dates and meetings and a delegate membership. The Executive Secretary, to whom all correspondence should be addressed, is Dr. W. R. M. Noordhoff, 27 Nieuwe Gracht, Utrecht, Holland.

LIST OF MINISTERS

This list gives the names of all ministers in the Unitarian Fellowship who are settled as mittee.

The insertion of names in the list, as well as the withdrawal of any, is wholly in charge

Under the heading "Settled" are given for convenience the dates at which a few who were closely akin to pastorial service began their work.

Those ministers for whom no date stands under "Settled" were without settlement at the

A key to the Doctors' degrees is included on Page 128.

NECROLOGY

1934

CLAYTON RAYMOND BOWEN

Rev. Clayton R. Bowen, Th.D., professor of New Testament Interpretation in The Meadville Theological School and Librarian of the School, died in London, England, on October 17, 1934. He had gone to Europe early in the summer to lecture and preach before going to Prague, where he was an official delegate to the Unitarian convocation.

He was born in Wellsboro, Pa., on November 25, 1877. A graduate of Franklin College in 1898, he began a brilliant record of professional study in Meadville. On completion of the course in 1901 he went abroad on a Perkins Fellowship and studied in 1901 and 1902 at the Universities of Berlin and Marburg. After a year in the Harvard Divinity School he became pastor of the Unitarian church in Charlestown, N. H., where he was ordained July 29, 1903. Two years later he went to Meadville as instructor, became assistant professor in 1907 and professor of New Testament Interpretation in 1911. After the removal of the School to Chicago in 1926 he served also as librarian.

Dr. Bowen was author of "The Resurrection in the New Testament" and "The Gospel of Jesus," and was a frequent contributor to theological journals and other periodicals. He filled preaching and lecture engagements in addition to his work at the School.

He is survived by his wife and two brothers.

ALFRED GOODING

Two days after the fiftieth anniversary of his installation as minister of the South Parish in Portsmouth, N. H., Rev. Alfred Gooding, minister emeritus of that church since 1922, died on October 17, 1934, at Portsmouth.

Mr. Gooding was born in Brookline, Mass., May 10, 1856. He was graduated from Harvard in 1877 and went abroad to study theology at Bonn and Göttingen, Germany, remaining there for three years. He received the degree of S.T.B. from Harvard Divinity School in 1881. The following year he was ordained to the Unitarian ministry and became minister of the church in Brunswick, Me. He went from there to Portsmouth in 1884 to become the minister of the South Parish.

Mr. Gooding was president of the Portsmouth Athenaeum, a trustee of the Portsmouth Public Library, and had been a member of the Portsmouth Board of Instruction.

He was a life member of the American Unitarian Association.

He is survived by a son and daughter.

WILLIAM H. ELFRING

Rev. William H. Elfring, minister of the Federated First Congregational-Unitarian Church, Fort Collins, Colo., died on November 9, 1934.

Born in Sutton, Neb., November 26, 1879, he was reared a Lutheran. While attending North Central College, at Napierville, Ill., he became interested in the more liberal interpretation of religion and, leaving the church of his youth, in 1909 was ordained to the ministry of the Congregational church. He held pastorates in Nebraska, North Dakota, Texas, New Mexico, and finally in Fort Collins, Colo.

He is survived by his wife, a son and daughter.

ROBERT WELLESLEY SAVAGE

Rev. Robert W. Savage died in Boston on November 14, 1934. He had been retired from active life for some time.

He was trained for the ministry at The Meadville Theological School, graduating with the class of 1881, and that same year he was ordained to the Unitarian ministry. His first pastorate was at Mt. Pleasant, Mich. From there he came east and was located at Ellsworth, Me., for a time, and then returned west to Greeley, Colo. Thereafter he served as minister of churches at Walpole, Mass.; Highland Springs and Richmond, Va.; Charlestown, N. H.; Winthrop, Mass.; and again at Walpole, Mass.

He was a life member of the American Unitarian Association.

He is survived by a brother and sister.

PHILIP MERCER

Rev. Philip Mercer, minister of the First Unitarian Church of Alton, Ill., died in Alton on November 19, 1934. Born in London, England, in 1886, Mr. Mercer was educated in England and at the University of Chicago. He had held only two Unitarian settlements, one at St. Cloud, Minn., and the other at Alton. Before coming to the Unitarian ministry he was a Congregational minister.

DANIEL C. LIMBAUGH

Rev. Daniel C. Limbaugh, scholar and educator, died on November 23, 1934, in Fort Worth, Tex.

He was born in Trenton, Miss., in 1856. His work was mainly educational. For four years he and his wife conducted a girls' academy at Abilene, Tex., which they founded. He was also the founder of the First Unitarian Church, Fort Worth, Tex., and of the First Unitarian Church, Dallas, Tex.

Mr. Limbaugh was retired for some years before his death and devoted himself to lecturing on literary subjects.

He was a life member of the American Unitarian Association.

He is survived by his wife, a son and a daughter.

WILLIAM HANSON PULSFORD

Rev. William H. Pulsford died on December 7, 1934, in Waltham, Mass.

He was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1859, and was educated at Glasgow University; the Airedale Theological College, Bradford, England; and the Universities of Göttingen, Halle, and Giessen, Germany. He was a Presbyterian minister at Dumfries, Scotland, from 1883 until 1890. For the following two years he was pastor of Emmanuel Church in Montreal, Canada. Coming to the United States in 1893, he served the Unitarian church in Waltham, Mass., from 1893 until 1901, and the First Unitarian Church in Chicago, Ill., from 1901 until 1923, when he retired and returned to Waltham to live, having completed forty-one years of continuous and active service.

Mr. Pulsford was author of services of worship which were used in the Waltham and Chicago and other Unitarian churches.

He is survived by his wife and daughter.

EDWARD DAVID TOWLE

Rev. Edward D. Towle died at Hillsboro, N. H., on December 18, 1934.

He was born in Boston on June 23, 1853, prepared for college at the Boston Latin School, was graduated from Wesleyan University in 1874, and prepared for the ministry at Boston Theological School. He was ordained to the Methodist Episcopal church and held one Methodist pastorate for six years before entering the Unitarian ministry. He served the following Unitarian churches: Chelsea, Mass.; Chattanooga, Tenn.; Salem, Mass. (East Church); Brookline, Mass. (Second Unitarian Society); and Peabody, Mass.

He was a life member of the American Unitarian Association.

He is survived by his wife and daughter.

1935

FRED MERRIFIELD

Rev. Fred Merrifield died in Chicago on February 6, 1935.

He was born in Ambey, Ill., in 1874. He was one of the earliest graduates of the University of Chicago and Divinity School. In 1901 he was ordained to the Baptist ministry. After missionary teaching in Tokyo, Japan, where he also did a pioneer work in coaching the first baseball team of Waseda University and inaugurated exchange games between that institution and the University of Chicago, he became director of the Baptist Guild House, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Later he returned to the University of Chicago as assistant professor of New Testament literature and religious counsellor of college students. In 1915 he became director of Meadville House at the University, and undertook with Mrs. Henry F. Whitmore the organization of Channing Club, which is still a permanent student activity of the First Unitarian Church.

At this time he entered the Unitarian ministry and in 1922 organized the Jackson Park Community Church, which was later augmented by amalgamation with All Souls' Church at Lincoln Centre.

In 1933 he became professor emeritus in the university and then undertook the ministry of the Hinsdale church.

Mr. Merrifield was editor of "Modern Religious Verse and Prose" and author of "The Rediscovery of Jesus." He was chairman of The Social Service Independent Committee for Political Action and for the Chicago district of the World Unity Foundation.

MARTIN F. FERREY

Rev. Martin F. Ferrey died at Salem, Ore., on February 23, 1935.

Born in Arabkir, Armenia, in 1888, Mr. Ferrey, as a child of seven, fled the country with his mother to avoid being massacred. Only the boy survived, and the father, who was visiting the United States when the outbreak occurred, went to Egypt for the boy and returned with him to the United States.

Mr. Ferrey was educated in Philadelphia, graduating in scientific agriculture. He received the degree of bachelor of divinity from The Meadville Theological School in 1916. In 1917 he was ordained to the ministry and served several Unitarian churches, his last pastorate being at Salem, Ore., from which he retired in 1929. In the meantime he had studied law at Willamette University and his last years were devoted to law and politics.

He is survived by his wife and daughter.

CAROLINE BARTLETT CRANE

Dr. Caroline Bartlett Crane died in Kalamazoo, Mich., on March 24, 1935.

Dr. Crane was born in Hudson, Wis., in 1858. After graduating from Carthage College in Illinois she took up school teaching and newspaper work and became city editor of the Oshkosh, Wis., Northwestern.

In 1886 she was appointed pastor of All Souls' Unitarian Church in Sioux Falls, Minn., and in 1889 was called to the People's Church, Kalamazoo. Under her guidance, this church soon became one of the city's leading churches. She established the city's first kindergarten school and promoted city sanitation.

After further study at the University of Chicago she returned to Kalamazoo and continued her social service, proving herself an expert in municipal sanitation, housing and civic services generally. Her best-known literary work was "U. S. Inspected and Passed," a criticism of federal meat inspection.

She was an executive board member of the League to Enforce Peace and a member of the National Committee of Forty on Reconstruction and War. In addition to being honored by numerous colleges, in May of last year she received conspicuous civic honors as "Kalamazoo's First Woman Citizen."

She is survived by her husband, a son and a daughter.

JOHANN PETUR SOLMUNDSSON

Rev. J. P. Solmundsson died at his home in Gimli, Man., Canada, on March 25, 1935.

He was born at Heggestooum, Borgarfjord, Iceland, in 1872. After a Canadian education he entered The Meadville Theological School, from which he graduated in 1902. He was in charge of the Unitarian church at Gimli from 1903 until 1910. In 1923 he received the degree of master of arts from the University of Manitoba. Since resigning from the church in 1910 he had represented the New York Life Assurance Company.

SUMMARY

No statistics are included from starred churches or summer congregations; the former because they are inactive, and the latter because most of the attendants are from other churches and their inclusion would pad the figures unduly. Preaching stations are not included in the list of churches, nor their figures in the pages of statistics. The returns from a few federated churches include members of other bodies but the number is small and does not materially change the totals. These figures are also included in the year book of other denominations represented in each federation.

Total number in list of churches	389
Summer congregations	11
Starred churches, inactive	25
Active churches	353
Preaching stations, not included in list of churches	10

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

History. — The American Unitarian Association was formally organized on May 25, 1825. Before the year 1825 there existed in Boston a club of some twenty liberal-minded and public-spirited citizens organized for social and philanthropic purposes. This Club was in the habit of meeting fortnightly for the discussion of subjects relating to religion, morals, and civic order. At a meeting held in January, 1825, at the residence of Hon. Josiah Quincy, a discussion arose concerning the advisability of forming an association to publish books and tracts setting forth the opinions and principles of the liberal party in the Congregational churches. On motion of Andrews Norton a committee of the Club was appointed to consider the expediency of forming such an association. This committee reported at a meeting held in the vestry of the Federal Street Church on January 27, 1825. There were present at the meeting William Ellery Channing, Henry Ware, Andrews Norton, Joseph May, Charles Lowell, Charles G. Loring, John G. Palfrey, James Walker, Robert Rantoul, Richard Sullivan, George Bond, Josiah Quincy, Joseph Tuckerman, Robert Waterson, Samuel A. Eliot, Jared Sparks, John Pierpont, David Reed, Aaron Bancroft, James Freeman, Joseph Story, Leverett Saltonstall and Stephen Higginson, with others prominent in the intellectual and social life of the city. These were men who were wont to lay more stress upon the virtues of breadth of mind, moderation, integrity, hospitality and generosity than upon doctrinal accuracy. They were not men who cared to try hazardous experiments, but they believed that the time had arrived for the organization of the liberal forces of the New England churches. The object of the proposed association was declared to be "to promote the growth of Christian truth and Christian charity, and the increase of religion in the land."

The proposal of the Club to organize a Unitarian Association was brought before the ministers of the Berry Street Conference on the morning of

May 25, 1825. The Conference did not think it proper to take any action on the subject, but notice was given that a meeting of gentlemen would be held for the consideration of the proposition in the vestry of the Federal Street Church at four o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Henry Ware, D.D., was chosen moderator at this meeting; and after discussion it was voted "that it is expedient to form a new society to be called the American Unitarian Association." Rev. James Walker, Rev. Ezra S. Gannett, and Mr. Lewis Tappan were appointed a committee to carry the preceding vote into effect. On the following morning, at a meeting of which Rev. Nathaniel Thayer, D.D., was moderator, this committee reported a constitution which, with slight modifications, is still in force. The object of this Association was by this constitution declared to be to "diffuse the knowledge and promote the interest of pure Christianity." Dr. Channing was elected President, Rev. Ezra S. Gannett, Secretary, and Mr. Lewis Tappan, Treasurer. The Vice-Presidents were Joseph Story of Salem, Joseph Lyman of Northampton, Stephen Longfellow of Portland, and six others; while James Walker, Henry Ware, Jr., and Samuel Barrett were chosen an Executive Committee. Dr. Channing was obliged by ill-health to decline to serve; and Dr. Aaron Bancroft of Worcester was chosen President in his place. The Association thus organized has ever since been the executive arm of the Unitarian body. It was incorporated in 1847, and made a delegate body in 1885.

Purpose. — The objects of the Association as defined in the original report of the Committee on Organization are as follows:

First. — To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.

Second. — To produce union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.

Third. — To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.

Fourth. — To supply missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.

Fifth. — To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient, such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries or in aid of building churches.

Government. — The Association is governed by the following by-laws:—

Article I. Purpose.

The purpose of the American Unitarian Association shall be:

To diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure religion which, in accordance with the teaching of Jesus, is summed up in love to God and love to man;

To encourage sympathy and co-operation among religious liberals;

And to strengthen the churches which unite in the Association for more and better work for the Kingdom of God.

The Association recognizes that its constituency is congregational in tradition and polity, and that nothing in these by-laws is to be construed as an authoritative test.

Article II. Organization Members.

Churches and other religious, educational, and philanthropic societies which make annual contributions to the Association shall be members of the Association. Churches and organizations not members of the Association shall become such whenever their contributions are received and have been accepted by the Board of Directors. Each member church shall be entitled to be represented at all meetings of the Association by its minister or ministers and two accredited lay delegates for the first fifty voting members or fractional part thereof and by one additional delegate for each additional fifty voting members, chosen during the year at any regular or special meeting; all other member societies shall be represented by the President and two other accredited delegates, only, chosen as aforesaid. A contribution must be placed in the hands of the officers of the Association on or before April 30, to entitle a church or other society to be represented in the following annual meeting.

Article III. Individual Life and Associate Members.

A subscription of fifty dollars shall constitute a person a member of this,

Association for life, but no church or other society shall be entitled to the representation set forth in Article II by virtue of any subscription used for the creation of life members. No person constituted a life member after the first day of May, 1925, shall have the right to vote; but nothing herein provided shall be construed to affect the rights or privileges of life members duly constituted as such before the first day of May, 1925.

A subscription of one dollar or more shall constitute a person an associate member of this Association. Associate membership shall not carry the right to vote.

Article IV. Honorary Vice-Presidents and Members.

The Board of Directors may by unanimous vote at a regular meeting elect honorary life members of this Association who shall have the rights and privileges of accredited delegates. Such elections shall be by ballot and nominations shall lie over one month. The number of such honorary life members shall not exceed twenty-five.

The Board of Directors may by unanimous vote at any regularly called Board Meeting nominate and at any regularly called meeting thereafter may elect one or more honorary Vice-Presidents, ex officiis, to be chosen exclusively from among the chief officers of the organized Unitarian or allied church groups in other countries.

Article V. Officers and Directors.

The officers shall be a President; one or more administrative Vice-Presidents; and eight (8) regional Vice-Presidents, one of whom at the time of his election shall be from Northern New England, one from Southern New England, one from the Middle Atlantic States, one from the Southern States, one from the Central West, one from the Rocky Mountain States, one from the Pacific Coast, and one from the Dominion of Canada; a Secretary, a Treasurer, who, with twenty-four (24) other persons, shall constitute the Board of Directors.

They shall be chosen by ballot at annual meetings, except that the Board of Directors may fill any vacancy to hold until the next annual meeting. The terms of office shall be as follows: the President, administrative Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, and the Treasurer, for four years; eighteen (18) of the directors of whom not less than nine shall be laymen, not less than three shall be women and not less than five shall be ministers, for three years, one-third to be elected annually; all other officers for one year.

Article VI. Quorum and Special Meetings.

The Board of Directors shall meet at least once in three months, ten members constituting a quorum, and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations, and authority to call special meetings of the Association whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee to have charge of such business as must be transacted between meetings of the Board of Directors, which Committee shall meet at the call of the President or Secretary.

Article VII. The Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate seal and of the funds, deeds and all other evidences of the property of the Association; shall receive moneys, make disbursements as directed, and otherwise transact all the business of the Association relating to its property and finances. He shall sign, execute and deliver all agreements, deeds and other instruments of conveyance, assignment, or transfer, in the name of the American Unitarian Association, which shall be under the seal of the Association. He shall have authority to sell, with the approval of any two other members of the Finance Committee, any stocks or other personal property owned by the Association.

Article VIII. Meetings of the Association.

The annual meeting of the Association shall be held in the month of May, in Boston, Massachusetts, of which due notice shall be given by circulars to the members of the Association and by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston at least ten days previous to the annual meeting.

The Association shall in the fall of each alternate year, beginning in 1925, hold a meeting away from Boston, but within the United States or the Dominion of Canada, to consider and act upon all matters to promote the objects of the Association.

No business transacted at any meeting other than an annual meeting, requiring the appropriation of money, shall become effective until ratified by the Board of Directors or the Association at its next annual meeting.

Article IX. Nomination of Officers.

Nominations for officers shall be made as follows:

A. The Board of Directors shall nominate the President, the administrative Vice-Presidents, the Secretary and the Treasurer at a meeting when these officers shall not be present or entitled to vote.

B. The Unitarian Ministerial Union, the Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women, the Unitarian Laymen's League and the Young People's Religious Union shall each have the right to nominate one director to serve for one year.

C. The Nominating Committee as hereinafter set forth shall nominate one director to serve for one year to represent all societies and agencies of primary interest to the Association or its constituent members, which are dedicated to the social expression of religion.

D. The Nominating Committee as hereinafter set forth shall nominate one director to serve for one year to represent all schools, colleges and other educational agencies of primary interest to the Association or its constituent members.

E. The other eighteen directors, of whom one third shall be chosen annually for three years, and all other officers qualified to be members of the Board of Directors, shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee chosen as the Association shall from time to time determine.

Nominations for any and all officers and directors may be made through nomination papers signed by fifty adult voting members, of whom not more than five shall be members of any one constituent church, and such nominations when reported to the Secretary of the Nominating Committee not less than sixty days prior to any annual meeting shall be placed upon the official ballot for said meeting.

Article X.

An amendment of these by-laws proposed at one annual meeting may be adopted at the next if the majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

COMMISSION OF APPRAISAL

The Commission created by act of the Annual Meeting of the American Unitarian Association on May 22, 1934, made its final report at the Annual Meeting of the Association on May 19, 1936. Action upon the full report of the Commission was deferred, at the request of its Chairman, for a year.

The Commission recommended that an Interim Commission on Planning and Review be set up to act until the final action was taken upon the report. Members of the Interim Commission are as follows: W. Rodman Peabody of Milton, Mass.; Mrs. John B. Nash of New York City; Rev. William S. Nichols of Danvers, Mass.; Dr. Frederick M. Eliot of St. Paul, Minn.; and Frank C. Smith, Jr., of Worcester, Mass.

GENERAL ALLIANCE

General Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women. The objects of the General Alliance are:—

1. Primarily to quicken religious life, and to bring Alliance women into closer acquaintance, co-operation and fellowship.

2. To promote local organizations of women for missionary and denominational work, and to bring the same into association.

3. To collect and disseminate information regarding all matters of interest to the denomination.

4. To devise ways and means for more efficient usefulness.

Mrs. Thomas G. Rees, President; Mrs. H. B. Hartwell, Secretary; Miss Louise Brown, Treasurer; Miss Helen W. Greenwood, Executive Secretary.

All communications should be addressed to 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

LAYMEN'S LEAGUE

Unitarian Laymen's League. — The general purposes of the League are:—

To promote the worship of God and the love and service of mankind, in the spirit of Jesus.

To recruit the man power of the liberal churches in spreading the influence of liberal religion.

To so arouse the men of America that they shall give united, intelligent, effective support, under the leadership of the church, to every wise, co-operative activity — religious, social, civic and moral.

Frank W. Scott, Newton Centre, Mass., President; Henry D. Sharpe, Providence, R. I., Treasurer; Ralph A. MacGilvra, Wellesley Hills, Mass., Secretary; Mrs. Beatrice Wadleigh, Executive Secretary.

For further information, address the Unitarian Laymen's League, 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

MINISTERIAL UNION

Unitarian Ministerial Union. — Designed to welcome and assist those entering the liberal ministry, to protect the profession and parishes from incompetent and unworthy men, to promote ministerial fellowship, to contribute to the edification of its members, to provide an organization through which the ministers of our church may speak and act as a unit, and to assist in the diffusion of the gospel.

Membership in the Union is open to all ministers in the Unitarian Fellowship who sign a card of acceptance sent them, returnable to the Secretary.

Rev. Augustus P. Reccord, D. D., Detroit, Mich., President; Rev. Arthur W. Olsen, 54 Lake Ave., Melrose, Mass., Secretary-Treasurer.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S RELIGIOUS UNION

The Young People's Religious Union. — The objects of the Union are: (a) to foster the religious life; (b) to bring the young people of our several churches into closer relations with one another; (c) to spread rational views of religion and to put into practice such principles of life and duty as tend to uplift mankind. The cardinal principles of the Union are truth, worship and service.

Any young people's society may become a member of the Union, by affirming in writing its sympathy with the general objects of the Union, by sending to the Secretary a list of its officers, and by making a contribution to the Union. Member societies are entitled to representation at all business meetings during the fiscal year by three delegates.

John W. Brigham, President; Pauline E. Wood, Secretary; Roland B. Greeley, Treasurer; J. Donald Johnston, Executive Secretary.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Harvard Divinity School, Cambridge, Mass.—This institution has now resumed its original name and is the successor of the Harvard Divinity School organized about 1816, founded and endowed by Unitarians.

The Divinity School is an organic department of Harvard University, is subject to no denominational control, and includes, in its faculty and student body, representatives of the more important denominations.

Faculty. — James Bryant Conant, Ph.D., LL.D., President; Willard Learoyd Sperry, D.D., Dean and Plummer Professor of Christian Morals.

The Meadville Theological School (founded 1844), 5701 Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago, Ill. — A graduate school, specializing in preparation for the liberal ministry, especially in the Unitarian Church. Association with the Divinity School of the University of Chicago and affiliated institutions opens to its students all the resources of a great center of education. The independent position of the School and its intimate common life make possible an educational plan adapted to individual needs and interest.

For information apply to the President of the School, Rev. Sydney B. Snow, D.D., 5701 Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago.

Pacific Unitarian School for the Ministry, Berkeley, Calif. — The school works in co-operation with the Pacific School of Religion and the University of California, and is thus able to offer combined facilities, among the best in the country, for the study of the several branches of theology and of sociology.

For further information, address the President of the School, William S. Morgan, Ph.D., S.T.D., 2400 Allston Way, Berkeley.

The Hackley School, Tarrytown-on-Hudson, N. Y.—Walter Boutwell Gage, A.B., Headmaster.

PUBLICATIONS

The Christian Register is the chief Unitarian Weekly. It is owned and published by a corporation known as The Christian Register, Incorporated.

By its history, its traditions, and the conviction of its editor and publishers, it is committed to the principles which characterize the Unitarian churches of America. It aims to make religion a source of strength, comfort, and instruction in the common life of man. The editorial office is at 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass. Subscription, $3.00 per year.

The Wayside Community Pulpit. — The Wayside Pulpit Committee appointed by the Directors of the American Unitarian Association has united with a committee appointed by the Trustees of the Universalist General Convention to issue throughout the year a regular series of bulletins in addition to the special Unitarian series issued during three months of the year. Of this united service Rev. Charles H. Pennoyer and Rev. Charles R. Joy are the editors, and in addition to the Unitarian committee members listed on page 5 the following persons represent the Universalist Churches:

Rev. Walter J. Coates
Dr. Mabel Irene Emerson
Rev. Effie McC. Jones
Mrs. Vivian L. Little
Dr. Reignold K. Marvin
Rev. William H. Murray
Rev. Clarence R. Skinner
Rev. Ashley A. Smith
Hon. Harold E. Sweet

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR LIBERAL CHRISTIANITY AND RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

The purpose of the Association is: To open and maintain communications with free Christian groups in all lands who are striving to unite religion and liberty, and to increase fellowship and co-operation among them.

To bring into closer union the historical liberal churches, the liberal elements in all churches and isolated congregations and workers for religious freedom.

To draw into the same fellowship other religious groups throughout the world which are in essential agreement with our ways of thinking.

The Association is a continuation of the International Congress, organized in Boston, Mass., May 25, 1900, and reorganized in the summer of 1930, in Arnhem, Holland. The Association plans for definite dates and meetings and a delegate membership. The Executive Secretary, to whom all correspondence should be addressed, is Dr. W. R. M. Noordhoff, 27 Nieuwe Gracht, Utrecht, Holland.

INTERNATIONAL UNION OF LIBERAL CHRISTIAN WOMEN

Central Bureau in London, Essex Hall, Essex St., W. C. 2; Rev. E. Rosalind Lee, Secretary. Mrs. Charles E. St. John, 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass., American Secretary.

THE LEYDEN INTERNATIONAL BUREAU

An International Association of Free-Christian and Free-Religious Youth.

Objects:

a. To bring together the Free-Christian and Free-Religious youth groups the world over, to realize the responsibility of freedom in religious, social, and international life.

b. To link up and give a sense of fellowship to all groups interested in the values of religion and the cause of international peace, friendship, and goodwill.

c. To promote and maintain a live and active sense of comradeship in high endeavor among the member groups and to stimulate among such groups the conviction that it is only through coöperation that youth can fulfill the call of God in the world.

Annual Conferences are held each year: 1936—Star Island, U. S. A.
1937—Oxford, England.

First organized in 1923, reorganized at Copenhagen in 1933. At present it is composed of fifteen member-groups from seven different countries. Office: Niewe Gracht 27, Utrecht, Holland.

THE (BRITISH) GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF UNITARIAN AND FREE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

The General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches was formed out of the amalgamation of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association and the National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations. The change dates from May, 1928.

Full information respecting Unitarian churches, ministers, and societies will be found in the Year Book published by the General Assembly. Inquiries should be addressed to Rev. Mortimer Rowe, B.A., Essex Hall, Essex St., London, W. C. 2, England.

CARLYLE SUMMERBELL, D.D.

Dr. Summerbell died on May 21, 1935, in Tremont Temple, Boston, attending the Meetings as a delegate from the church at Trenton, New Jersey. He had just finished an address in support of a program for social action.

He was born in Springboro, Pennsylvania, on November 24, 1873. He was graduated from Bucknell College in 1897, receiving a degree of Master of Arts two years later. For seven years he was president of Palmer College, Albany, Missouri. During the World Was he served as chaplain with the Field Artillery.

Mr. Summerbell entered the Unitarian ministry in 1923. His ministry included churches in Keokuk, Iowa, Roslindale, Mass., and Tampa, Florida.

Dr. Summerbell is survived by a widow, Susanna Kerr Summerbell, a son and two daughters.

THOMAS SALTER ROBJENT

Reverend Thomas S. Robjent died in Rockport, Mass., July 22, 1935.

Mr. Robjent was born in Bristol, England, January 8, 1858, and received his education in the University of London. Shortly after his marriage he moved to this country and served in various Unitarian churches over a period of forty-two years.

Among the pastorates held by Mr. Robjent were the churches at Colorado Springs, Lawrence, Mass., Stamford, Conn., and Fall River, Mass. He retired from active ministry in 1927.

He is survived by his widow, Mary L. Robjent, and two sons.

FRANK RANDALL GALE

Rev. Frank R. Gale died in Dorchester, Mass., October 2, aged 63 years.

Born in Barre, Vermont, February 17, 1872, Mr. Gale was educated at Goddard Seminary and Tufts College, from which he received the Bachelor of Arts degree in 1897, and at the Harvard Divinity School. He was ordained at Stowe, Vermont, in 1899. Among the churches which he served faithfully were those at Berlin, Mass., Follen Church, East Lexington, Channing Church, Dorchester, and Winthrop, Mass.

Mr. Gale is survived by his widow, Effie Anna Gale, one son and two daughters.

WILLIAM LAURENCE SULLIVAN, D.D.

William Laurence Sullivan died in Philadelphia, October 6, at the age of 63 years.

Born in East Braintree, Mass., November 15, 1872, he was graduated from the Boston Theological Seminary in 1896, from the Catholic University in 1899, and was ordained to the Roman Catholic priesthood in the same year.

In 1909 he joined the Unitarian fellowship and served as minister of the First Unitarian Society of Schenectady, New York, from 1911 to 1913; of

All Souls' Church, New York City, from 1913 to 1922. In 1917 he received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from the Meadville Theological School. After serving as mission preacher for the Laymen's League from 1922 to 1924, Dr. Sullivan became the minister of the Church of the Messiah, St. Louis, Missouri, where he remained until 1928. At the time of his death he was minister of the Unitarian Society of Germantown, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Sullivan was the author of two books which attracted wide attention: "Letters to His Holiness" and "The Priest."

He is survived by his widow, Estelle Throckmorton Sullivan.

DANIEL MUNRO WILSON

Reverend Daniel M. Wilson died on October 10th at his home in Newport, Rhode Island, in his eighty-eighth year.

Mr. Wilson was born in Paisley, Scotland, and came to this country as a young man. He was graduated from the Harvard Divinity School in 1872 and was ordained in the same year. Mr. Wilson held pastorates at Melrose, Malden, Northfield, Quincy and Dover, Mass., Brooklyn, New York, and Kennebunk, Maine. Mr. Wilson also served for a time as Superintendent for the New England Churches of the American Unitarian Association.

He was the author of a book entitled "Where American Independence Began."

His widow, Ella Callista Wilson, died a few months after her husband. There are left two daughters and a son.

WILLIAM IRVIN LAWRANCE, Th.D.

Reverend William I. Lawrance died in Berkeley, California, on October 18th, at the age of 82.

He was born in Winchester, Ohio. After finishing his course at Antioch College, he took courses at Harvard and then began fifty years of Unitarian service. Among the churches which he served were the Third Religious Society of Dorchester, the Independent Congregational Church at Meadville, Pennsylvania, and the Unitarian Society at Winchester, Mass. His interest in religious education led him to take an active part in the Sunday School Society, becoming its president in 1910. In 1917 he was awarded the degree of Doctor of Theology by the Meadville Theological School.

For two and a half years Dr. Lawrance had charge of the Unitarian Mission in Japan. In 1919 he was invited by the Near East Relief to represent the Unitarian denomination in a tour of investigation of their work. He retired from active pastorate in 1925. He continued, however, to serve many good causes to the day of his death.

Dr. Lawrance is survived by his wife, a son and two daughters.

AUBREY F. HESS, Ph.D.

Reverend Aubrey F. Hess died on October 28th in Clarksburg, West Virginia, while on his way to attend the General Conference at Cincinnati.

Mr. Hess was born in Louden County, Virginia, December 8, 1875. He received his education, both in arts and theology, at Randolph-Macon College, Westminster, Maryland. He later received his Ph.D. from Kansas City University.

Dr. Hess was in the Methodist Episcopal ministry from 1899 to 1904, and in the Congregational ministry from 1914 to 1930, when he joined the Unitarian fellowship and became minister of our church at Atlanta, Georgia. Beside his ministerial service Dr. Hess was for a time President of Adrian College, Michigan, and of W. Lafayette College, Ohio, and served as a professor in the University of West Virginia and the University of Missouri.

Dr. Hess is survived by a wife, two sons and two daughters.

ARTHUR GOODING PETTENGILL

Reverend Arthur G. Pettengill died on November 24th in Portland, Maine, as he was delivering a Thanksgiving sermon.

Mr. Pettengill was born in Brewer, Maine, October 30, 1858. He was a graduate of Bowdoin College, received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Yale Divinity School in 1885, and later did graduate work at Yale.

He was ordained in 1889. He entered the Congregational ministry and was minister of the church at Warren, Maine, for several years. He then entered the Unitarian church and held pastorates at Yarmouth, Maine, Hyde Park, Mass., and then at Preble Chapel where he served for thirty-one years. His work at Preble Chapel was that of "minister-at-large." Perhaps the strongest characteristic of his ministry has been the service which he has rendered to individual men and women.

Mr. Pettengill leaves a wife, two daughters and a son.

CHARLES JASON STAPLES

Reverend Charles J. Staples died January 2nd at his home in Westboro, Mass.

Mr. Staples was born in Meadville, Pennsylvania, May 30, 1856. He received the degree of A. B. from Brown University in 1878 and of S.T.B. from the Harvard Divinity School in 1881. He was ordained at Reading, Mass., the following year.

The son of a Unitarian minister, Mr. Staples held pastorates in Manchester, N. H., Burlington, Vt., and Northboro, Mass. He retired from the ministry a few years before his death after fifty years of active service.

Mr. Staples leaves a wife, Grace D. Staples, four sons and a daughter.

HUBERT THEODORE LAW

Rev. Hubert Theodore Law died in Bellows Falls, Vermont, February 5, 1936. Born in London, England, in 1879, Mr. Law came to this country as a young man and after studying at the University of Chicago entered Meadville Theological School from which he was graduated in 1924. He was ordained to the Unitarian ministry on January 30, 1925, and served as minister of the Unitarian church in Charlestown, N. H., for five years. He afterwards held pastorates in two Congregational churches in Vermont and entered the Congregational fellowship in 1934. Mr. Law is survived by his widow, Martha Coolidge Law.

JOHN WESLEY ROWLETT

Rev. John W. Rowlett died on March 24th, at Atlanta, Georgia. Mr. Rowlett was born in Belford, Kentucky, in 1863. He married Ladie Fowler, who died in 1933. He was for years a licensed preacher and active in the ministry for forty-five years. Mr. Rowlett had an interesting and colorful career. His first charge was a Presbyterian Church, the historic Andrew Jackson Church, where he served for a year when he was a student at Vanderbilt University. As a member of the Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the South he served as pastor in Nashville, Tenn. For thirteen years he preached in various churches in Texas. Accused of heresy, he stood trial but was acquitted by an ecclesiastical court. After this trial Mr. Rowlett voluntarily left the Methodist ministry and took membership in both the Universalist and Unitarian churches. At the time of his death he was pastor of the Shinn Memorial Church in Chattanooga. He is survived by five daughters.

CHARLES EASTERNHOUSE

Rev. Charles Easternhouse died on March 27th, in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Mr. Easternhouse was a native of Holland. He migrated to this country when he was fifteen years old. He received his theological education at the Meadville Theological School and Tufts College, from which he received the degree of S.T.B. He was settled for a time over the Universalist Church at Machias, Maine, and at the time of his death was the minister of the Universalist Church at Halifax. He is survived by two brothers, both of whom live in Holland.

THOMAS LAMB ELIOT

Rev. Thomas Lamb Eliot, D.D., died in Portland, Oregon, on April 28th, at the age of 94. He was born in St. Louis, Missouri, in 1841. He was a member of the first class to be graduated from Washington University, St. Louis, in 1862. In 1865 he was graduated from Harvard Divinity School, and in 1867 he accepted the call to the church in Portland, Oregon. There he remained as minister until 1893, since which time he has been minister emeritus. He was known throughout the denomination for his intellectual, moral and philosophical leadership. In its issue of April 28, 1936, the leading newspaper of Portland, Oregon, published a tribute entitled "In Memoriam." It represented Oregon bowing before the grave of Thomas Lamb Eliot, the tombstone bearing this inscription,—"68 years of selfless labor for the public weal." Eight children were born to Dr. and Mrs. Eliot. All of them lived but one. His eldest son, Rev. William G. Eliot, Jr., was called to his father's pulpit in 1906 and served the church until 1934 when he became pastor emeritus. The Portland church is probably unique in having both a father and a son carried on its roll as living pastores emeriti.

SUMMARY

No statistics are included from starred churches or summer congregations; the former because they are inactive, and the latter because most of the attendants are from other churches and their inclusion would pad the figures unduly. Preaching stations are not included in the list of churches, nor their figures in the pages of statistics. The returns from a few federated churches include members of other bodies but the number is small and does not materially change the totals. These figures are also included in the year book of other denominations represented in each federation.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

NATURE AND SCOPE OF THE ASSOCIATION

At the Annual Meeting of the American Unitarian Association, held on May 25, 1936, the following "declaratory resolution" was adopted:

The Association is a voluntary organization of churches and other religious, educational and philanthropic societies, and life members now empowered to vote, uniting themselves in the furtherance of the purposes enumerated in Article I of the Association's By-Laws.

In thus associating themselves the individual churches and societies abrogate no part of their independent autonomy; neither does the Association have any authority over other conferences or associations of Unitarian churches having lesser geographical scope. The Association is, nevertheless, competent to undertake such functions in behalf of the entire body of associated churches as these churches, by delegates assembled, may from time to time commit to it.

The Association shall make a biennial review of the whole field of interest common to the Unitarian fellowship in America and shall address general suggestions or special counsel to the churches as a group and to the associated societies in relation to their collective concerns.

The relation of the Association to other Unitarian societies of general scope is that of a general council. It has responsibility for promoting the unity and harmony of the entire movement, but, until further advised by its experience, will confine itself to recommending to these societies for voluntary adoption such undertakings and methods in their respective fields as it judges to be in the minds of the fellowship.

BY-LAWS OF THE ASSOCIATION
AS ADOPTED ON MAY 25, 1937

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE

The purpose of the American Unitarian Association shall be:

1. To diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure religion which, in accordance with the teachings of Jesus, is summed up in love to God and love to man;
2. To strengthen the churches which unite in the Association for more and better work for the Kingdom of God;
3. To organize new churches for the extension of our faith in our own country and in other lands;
4. And to encourage sympathy and co-operation among religious liberals at home and abroad.
5. The Association recognizes that its constituency is congregational in tradition and polity, and that nothing in these By-laws is to be construed as an authoritative test.

ARTICLE II. ORGANIZATION MEMBERS

1. Churches and other religious, educational, and philanthropic societies which make annual contributions to the Association shall be members of the Association. Churches and organizations not members of the Association may become such whenever they shall express their approval of or general sympathy with the purpose of the Association, and whenever their contributions are received and have been accepted by the Board of Directors.

2. Each member church shall be entitled to be represented at all meetings of the Association by its minister or ministers, and two accredited lay delegates for the first fifty voting members or fractional part thereof, and by one additional lay delegate for each additional fifty voting members; and shall be entitled to choose a like number of alternate lay delegates to serve in the event of the absence of any of the delegates originally chosen, and, in the case of such member churches as have local auxiliaries in good standing of the Unitarian Laymen's League, the General Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women, and the Young People's Religious Union, by one additional lay delegate or alternate for each such auxiliary. All lay delegates shall be chosen by each member church from its own constituency in accordance with its by-laws or precedents. Each other member society shall be represented by its president and two other accredited delegates or alternates, only, chosen as aforesaid from its members or those participating in its activities. No individual member nor any delegate shall be entitled to more than one vote at any meeting of the Association. A contribution must be placed in the hands of the officers of the Association on or before April 30, to entitle a church or other society to be represented in meetings of the Association during the year beginning on the following May 1.

ARTICLE III. INDIVIDUAL LIFE AND ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

1. A subscription of fifty dollars shall constitute a person a member of this Association for life, but no church or other society shall be entitled to the representation set forth in Article II by virtue of any subscription used for the creation of life members. No person constituted a life member after the first day of May, 1925, shall have the right to vote; but nothing herein provided shall be construed to affect the rights or privileges of life members duly constituted as such before the first day of May, 1925.

2. A subscription of one dollar or more per year shall constitute a person an associate member of this Association. Associate membership shall not carry the right to vote.

ARTICLE IV. HONORARY VICE-PRESIDENTS AND MEMBERS

1. The Board of Directors may by unanimous vote at any regularly called Board Meeting nominate and at any regularly called meeting thereafter may elect honorary life members of this Association who shall have the rights and privileges of accredited delegates. Such elections shall be by ballot and nominations shall lie over one month. The number of such honorary life members shall not exceed twenty-five.

2. The Board of Directors may by unanimous vote at any regularly called Board Meeting nominate and at any regularly called meeting thereafter may elect one or more honorary Vice-Presidents, ex officiis, to be chosen exclusively from among the chief officers of the organized Unitarian or allied church groups in other countries.

ARTICLE V. OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

1. The officers shall be a Moderator; a President; and eight (8) regional Vice-Presidents, one of whom at the time of his or her election shall be from Northern New England, one from Southern New England, one from the Middle Atlantic States, one from the Southern States, one from the Central West, one from the Rocky Mountain States, one from the Pacific Coast, and one from the Dominion of Canada; a Secretary; a Treasurer. These officers, with twenty-four (24) other persons, shall constitute the Board of Directors. They shall be chosen by ballot at annual meetings, except that the Board of Directors may fill any vacancy to hold until the next annual meeting.

2. The terms of office shall be as follows: the Moderator for two years; the President, the Secretary, and the Treasurer, for four years; eighteen (18) of the directors, of whom not less than nine shall be laymen, not less than three shall be women and not less than five shall be ministers, for three years, one-third to be elected annually; all other officers and directors for one year.

3. The Secretary of the Association shall cause to be prepared and mailed each year, on or before May 1st, to every member church and society as many ballots as the number of delegates to which it is entitled as representatives at the annual meeting of such year, and one ballot each to every individual member entitled to vote at the annual meeting, upon which ballots shall appear the nominations made in accordance with Article X with appropriate blank spaces for the substitution of alternative names. Each such ballot, when placed in a sealed envelope and accompanied by the signed credentials of an individual member or of any delegate member entitled to vote at such annual meeting and received by the Secretary of the Association not later than 5 P. M. of the day preceding the said annual meeting, shall be deposited with the chairman of the Committee on Ballots, who shall open any and all such envelopes in the presence of the Committee on Ballots at the time of their canvass of the vote of the meeting; and all of such ballots so found shall be counted in said canvass and in addition to the votes cast in person at said annual meeting, provided that no individual member nor any delegate shall be entitled to more than one vote.

ARTICLE VI. DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

1. The Board of Directors shall meet at least once in three months, ten members constituting a quorum, and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations, and authority to call special meetings of the Association whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

2. It shall report to the annual meeting of the Association.

3. The Board shall choose from its own members an executive committee of not less than seven, to have charge of such business as the Board of Directors shall delegate to it, and of the affairs of the Association between meetings of the Board. The executive committee shall report to the Board at each of its regular meetings all transactions of the committee since its last report. The executive committee shall meet at the call of the President or Secretary, or upon such other notice as the Board of Directors may establish.

4. The Directors may recognize properly constituted and competent regional conferences of Unitarian churches as administrative auxiliaries and may make appropriations to them for the carrying out of its purposes as set forth in Article I of these By-laws.

ARTICLE VII. DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

1. The Moderator shall be an unsalaried officer and not eligible for re-election. He shall preside at biennial meetings of the Association falling within his term, and shall be provided by the Directors with an expense fund necessary to enable him to accept opportunities to appear and speak in the interests of the Unitarian movement, and for such other purposes as may be approved by the Board of Directors. He shall be an official representative of the Unitarian churches in fraternal non-administrative relations with other religious bodies. He shall be ex officio a member of the Commission on Planning and Review and a Director of the Association, but have no other responsibility for its administrative affairs.

2. The President is the chief executive officer of the Association. He is ex officio a member of the Executive Committee and of all departmental and standing committees. It is his duty to correlate the work of all departments and agencies of the Association, to supervise its administrative activities, and to present the Annual Report of the Board of Directors.

3. The Secretary shall be responsible for making and preserving full records of the actions of the Association, and of its Directors, for conducting its general correspondence, and in general for those duties usually assigned to a secretary.

4. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate seal and of the funds, deeds, and all other evidences of the property of the Association; shall receive moneys, make disbursements as directed, and otherwise transact all the business of the Association relating to its property and finances. He shall sign, execute, and deliver all agreements, deeds, and other instruments of conveyance, assignment or transfer, in the name of the American Unitarian Association, which shall be under the seal of the Association. He shall have authority to sell, with the approval of any two other members of the Finance Committee, any stocks or other personal property owned by the Association.

5. The President, Secretary, and Treasurer, together with others employed as executive officers and heads of departments, shall constitute a Staff Council, which shall meet at call of the President or Secretary. The Staff Council shall confer concerning questions involving the work of more than one department; but shall not as a body take action on matters which fall within the primary responsibility of any departmental or standing committee. All regional secretaries shall be eligible to sit with the Staff Council.

6. It shall be the duty of the Business Committee to receive and report upon all resolutions or other matters to be presented for action at any annual, biennial, or special meeting of the Association (except such matters as are provided for in these by-laws), and, except by consent of a three-quarters vote of those present and voting at the meeting, only such matters as have been presented to the Business Committee at least fourteen days prior to the meeting shall be considered.

ARTICLE VIII. COMMISSION ON PLANNING AND REVIEW

1. At each biennial session a permanent Commission on Planning and Review shall be elected consisting of five persons, one of whom shall be the Moderator ex officio. At the first election two of the other four persons shall be elected for two years and two for four years. Thereafter members shall serve for a four-year term and be available for re-election, provided that no officer of the American Unitarian Association or any of the major denominational organizations shall be eligible for election while holding office in such organization.

2. The Commission shall report directly to the biennial session, and its necessary expenses shall be provided by a special appropriation in the Association's budget. The Commission shall make a unified report on the total work of the Unitarian fellowship through its national and regional organizations, and shall present a consolidated budget covering the entire scope of the work, its items to be effective when accepted by the several agencies. The Commission shall initiate necessary measures to correlate the work of all the agencies; it may foster interagency committees on matters needing joint action and may organize regular meetings of the executives and departmental officers of the various agencies. The Commission may also advise any agency directly as to its work.

ARTICLE IX. MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

1. In the fall of each alternate year beginning in 1937 the Association shall hold a meeting within the United States or Dominion of Canada, but not at the place at which the last annual meeting was held, to consider and act upon all matters to promote its objects. This meeting shall be known as the General Conference of the American Unitarian Association. It shall review the outlook and work of the Unitarian movement and shall advise the several agencies of the movement in the light of their common objectives. It may make recommendations to the Board of Directors on matters which for legal reasons the Association cannot act upon outside of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The representation of churches at the General Conference shall be upon the same basis as that provided for the annual meeting in section 2 of Article II.

2. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held in the month of May, in Boston, Massachusetts, of which due notice shall be given by circulars to the members of the Association and by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston at least ten days previous to the annual meetings.

3. No business transacted at any meeting other than an annual meeting, requiring the appropriation of money, shall become effective until ratified by the Board of Directors or by the Association at its next annual meeting.

ARTICLE X. NOMINATIONS

1. The Board of Directors shall nominate the President, the Secretary, and the Treasurer.

2. The Unitarian Ministerial Union, the Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women, the Unitarian Laymen's League, and the Young People's Religious Union shall each have the right to nominate one director to serve for one year.

3. The Nominating Committee as hereinafter set forth shall nominate one director to serve for one year to represent all societies and agencies of primary interest to the Association or its constituent members, which are dedicated to the social expression of religion.

4. The Nominating Committee as hereinafter set forth shall nominate one director to serve for one year to represent all schools, colleges, and other educational agencies of primary interest to the Association or its constituent members.

5. The other eighteen directors, of whom one-third shall be chosen annually for three years, and all other officers qualified to be members of the Board of Directors shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee.

6. At the General Conference of the Association, the Nominating Committee shall nominate the Moderator for a two-year term, his election to take place at the next following annual meeting. It shall also nominate and the General Conference shall elect a Program Committee and a Business Committee, each of five members, to serve for the biennial and annual meetings held during the two succeeding years. The Program and Business Committees shall elect their own chairmen and secretaries, and the chairman and secretary of each shall be members ex officiis of the other.

7. Nominations for any and all officers, directors, and committees shall be published at least ninety days prior to the date of election. Additional nominations may be made through nomination papers signed by fifty adult voting members, of whom not more than five shall be members of any one constituent society, and such nominations when reported to the Secretary of the Association not less than sixty days prior to the date of the meeting at which they are to be voted upon shall be placed upon the official ballot for said meeting.

ARTICLE XI. NOMINATING COMMITTEE

1. The Nominating Committee shall consist of ten members. The Presidents of the Unitarian Ministerial Union, the General Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women, the Unitarian Laymen's League, and the Young People's Religious Union shall be members, ex officiis.

2. The other six members shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the General Conference of the American Unitarian Association.

3. The first Nominating Committee shall be nominated by the present General Conference Committee and shall be elected by ballot at the General Conference in 1937. Three of the six members shall be elected for a term of two years and three for a term of four years.

4. At the General Conference in 1939 and thereafter at each General Conference, three members shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected for a term of four years and shall not be eligible for re-election until two years after the expiration of their terms.

5. Members of the Nominating Committee elected by the General Conference shall not be members of the Board of Directors at the time of the election and shall be ineligible for election to the Board of Directors during their term of office on the Nominating Committee.

6. Vacancies shall be filled by the Nominating Committee until the next General Conference.

ARTICLE XII. AMENDMENTS

An amendment of these By-laws proposed at one annual meeting may be adopted at the next if the majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

The American Unitarian Association was formally organized on May 25, 1825. Before the year 1825 there existed in Boston a club of some twenty liberal-minded and public-spirited citizens organized for social and philanthropic purposes. This Club was in the habit of meeting fortnightly for the discussion of subjects relating to religion, morals, and civic order. At a meeting held in January, 1825, at the residence of Hon. Josiah Quincy, a discussion arose concerning the advisability of forming an association to publish books and tracts setting forth the opinions and principles of the liberal party in the Congregational churches. On motion of Andrews Norton a committee of the Club was appointed to consider the expediency of forming such an association. This committee reported at a meeting held in the vestry of the Federal Street Church on January 27, 1825. There were present at the meeting William Ellery Channing, Henry Ware, Andrews Norton, Joseph May, Charles Lowell, Charles G. Loring, John G. Palfrey, James Walker, Robert Rantoul, Richard Sullivan, George Bond, Josiah Quincy, Joseph Tuckerman, Robert Waterson, Samuel A. Eliot, Jared Sparks, John Pierpont, David Reed, Aaron Bancroft, James Freeman, Joseph Story, Leverett Saltonstall, and Stephen Higginson, with others prominent in the intellectual and social life of the city. These were men who were wont to lay more stress upon the virtues of breadth of mind, moderation, integrity, hospitality and generosity than upon doctrinal accuracy. They were not men who cared to try hazardous experiments, but they believed that the time had arrived for the organization of the liberal forces of the New England churches. The object of the proposed association was declared to be "to promote the growth of Christian truth and Christian charity, and the increase of religion in the land."

The proposal of the Club to organize a Unitarian Association was brought before the ministers of the Berry Street Conference on the morning of May 25, 1825. The Conference did not think it proper to take any action on the subject, but notice was given that a meeting of gentlemen would be held for the consideration of the proposition in the vestry of the Federal Street Church at four o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Henry Ware, D.D., was chosen moderator at this meeting; and after discussion it was voted "that it is expedient to form a new society to be called the American Unitarian Association." Rev. James Walker, Rev. Ezra S. Gannett, and Mr. Lewis Tappan were appointed a committee to carry the preceding vote into effect. On the following morning, at a meeting of which Rev. Nathaniel Thayer, D.D., was moderator, this committee reported a constitution which, with slight modifications, is still in force. The object of this Association was by this constitution declared to be to "diffuse the knowledge and promote the interest of pure Christianity." Dr. Channing was elected President, Rev. Ezra S. Gannett, Secretary, and Mr. Lewis Tappan, Treasurer. The Vice-Presidents were Joseph Story of Salem, Joseph Lyman of Northampton, Stephen Longfellow of Portland, and six others; while James Walker, Henry Ware, Jr., and Samuel Barrett were chosen an Executive Committee. Dr. Channing was obliged by ill-health to decline to serve; and Dr. Aaron Bancroft of Worcester was chosen President in his place. The Association thus organized has ever since been the executive arm of the Unitarian body. It was incorporated in 1847, and made a delegate body in 1885.

GENERAL ALLIANCE OF UNITARIAN AND OTHER LIBERAL CHRISTIAN WOMEN

Officers

Mrs. Russell P. Wise, President
Mrs. H. B. Hartwell, Secretary
Mrs. Louise Brown Jenney, Treasurer

The objects of the Union are:—

1. To foster the religious life.

2. To bring the young people of our several churches into closer relations with one another.

3. To spread rational views of religion and to put into practice such principles of life and duty as tend to uplift mankind. The cardinal principles of the Union are truth, worship and service.

Any young people's society may become a member of the Union by affirming in writing its sympathy with the general objects of the Union, by sending to the Secretary a list of its officers, and by making a contribution to the Union. Member societies are entitled to representation at all business meetings during the fiscal year by three delegates.

All communications should be addressed to 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

MINISTERIAL UNION

Officers

Rev. Augustus P. Reccord, D.D., Detroit, Mich., President

Rev. Arthur W. Olsen, 54 Lake Ave., Melrose, Mass., Secretary-Treasurer

Rev. Joseph Barth, Newton, Mass., Editor, U.M.U. News Letter

The Ministerial Union is designed to welcome and assist those entering the liberal ministry, to protect the profession and parishes from incompetent and unworthy men, to promote ministerial fellowship, to contribute to the edification of its members, to provide an organization through which the ministers of our church may speak and act as a unit, and to assist in the diffusion of the gospel. Membership is open to all ministers in the Unitarian Fellowship and to students preparing for the Unitarian ministry in the United States and Canada who "make an annual contribution toward expenses of the Union or declare inability to do so."

PLACES OF ASSEMBLY AND RETREAT

Chautauqua. — Headquarters are maintained at Chautauqua, open during the whole season. Many years ago the building, centrally located and well furnished, was given to the Association. It was completely renovated in 1937. The Universalist General Convention, the General Alliance, and the Meadville Conference cooperate with the Association in its maintenance as Unitarian-Universalist Headquarters. Religious services are held every Sunday morning and gatherings of various kinds during the week. Every summer many hundred people from most of the States and several foreign countries visit the Unitarian-Universalist House.

Isles of Shoals, Off Portsmouth, N. H.

The Star Island Corporation. — For forty years Unitarian summer meetings have been held on Star Island, one of the Isles of Shoals. These meetings have been divided into various groups, and continue for about two months under the general direction of the Star Island Corporation, which is entirely independent. About 20,000 persons have attended these meetings and the number and interest constantly increase.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Harvard Divinity School, Cambridge, Mass.—This institution has now resumed its original name and is the successor of the Harvard Divinity School organized about 1816, founded and endowed by Unitarians.

The Divinity School is an organic department of Harvard University, is subject to no denominational control, and includes, in its faculty and student body, representatives of the more important denominations.

For information apply to the Dean of the School, Francis Avenue, Cambridge, Mass.

The Meadville Theological School (founded 1844), 5701 Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago, Ill. — A graduate school, specializing in preparation for the liberal ministry, especially in the Unitarian Church. Association with the Divinity School of the University of Chicago and affiliated institutions opens to its students all the resources of a great center of education. The independent position of the School and its intimate common life make possible an educational plan adapted to individual needs and interest.

For information apply to the President of the School, Rev. Sydney B. Snow, D.D., 5701 Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago.

Pacific Unitarian School for the Ministry, Berkeley, Calif. — The school works in co-operation with the Pacific School of Religion and the University of California, and is thus able to offer combined facilities, among the best in the country, for the study of the several branches of theology and of sociology.

For further information, address the President of the School, William S. Morgan, Ph.D., S.T.D., 2400 Allston Way, Berkeley.

Rev. Minot Simons, D.D., New York City, President; Richard M. Page, 55 Liberty St., New York City, Secretary; Walter Boutwell Gage, A.B., Treasurer.

Proctor Academy, Andover, N. H. — Philip P. Sharples, Cambridge, Mass., President; Fred E. Emerson, Andover, N. H., Secretary; Melvin C. Redman, Franklin, N. H., Treasurer; J. Halsey Gulick, Headmaster.

PUBLICATIONS

The Christian Register is the chief Unitarian Weekly. It is owned and published by a corporation known as The Christian Register, Incorporated. By its history, its traditions, and the conviction of its editor and publishers, it is committed to the principles which characterize the Unitarian churches of America. It aims to make religion a source of strength, comfort, and instruction in the common life of man. The editorial office is at 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass. Subscription, $3.00 per year.

The Wayside Community Pulpit. — The Wayside Pulpit Committee appointed by the Directors of the American Unitarian Association has united with a committee appointed by the Trustees of the Universalist General Convention to issue throughout the year a regular series of bulletins in addition to the special Unitarian series issued during three months of the year. Of this united service Rev. Charles H. Pennoyer and Rev. Charles R. Joy are the editors, and in addition to the Unitarian committee members listed on page 5 the following persons represent the Universalist Churches:

Rev. Walter J. Coates
Dr. Mabel Irene Emerson
Rev. Effie McC. Jones
Rev. Max Adolph Kapp
Rev. William H. Murray
Rev. Clarence R. Skinner
Rev. Ashley A. Smith
Hon. Harold E. Sweet
Mrs. Mary Collett Weis

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR LIBERAL CHRISTIANITY AND RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

The purpose of the Association is: To open and maintain communications with free Christian groups in all lands who are striving to unite religion and liberty, and to increase fellowship and co-operation among them.

To bring into closer union the historical liberal churches, the liberal elements in all churches and isolated congregations and workers for religious freedom.

To draw into the same fellowship other religious groups throughout the world which are in essential agreement with our ways of thinking.

The Association is a continuation of the International Congress, organized in Boston, Mass., May 25, 1900, and reorganized in the summer of 1930, in Arnhem, Holland. The Association plans for definite dates and meetings and a delegate membership. The Executive Secretary, to whom all correspondence should be addressed, is Dr. W. R. M. Noordhoff, 27 Nieuwe Gracht, Utrecht, Holland.

INTERNATIONAL UNION OF LIBERAL CHRISTIAN WOMEN

Central Bureau in London, Essex Hall, Essex St., W. C. 2; Rev. E. Rosalind Lee, Secretary. Mrs. Richard Y. FitzGerald, 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass., American Secretary.

THE LEYDEN INTERNATIONAL BUREAU

An International Association of Free-Christian and Free-Religious Youth.

Objects:

a. To bring together the Free-Christian and Free-Religious youth groups the world over, to realize the responsibility of freedom in religious, social, and international life.

b. To link up and give a sense of fellowship to all groups interested in the values of religion and the cause of international peace, friendship, and goodwill.

c. To promote and maintain a live and active sense of comradeship in high endeavor among the member groups and to stimulate among such groups the conviction that it is only through coöperation that youth can fulfill the call of God in the world.

Annual Conferences are held each year: 1936—Star Island, U. S. A.
1937—Oxford, England.
1938—

First organized in 1923, reorganized at Copenhagen in 1933. At present it is composed of fifteen member-groups from seven different countries. Office: Nieuwe Gracht 27, Utrecht, Holland.

THE (BRITISH) GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF UNITARIAN AND FREE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

The General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches was formed out of the amalgamation of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association and the National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations. The change dates from May, 1928.

Full information respecting Unitarian churches, ministers, and societies will be found in the Year Book published by the General Assembly. Inquiries should be addressed to Rev. Mortimer Rowe, B.A., Essex Hall, Essex St., London, W. C. 2, England.

NECROLOGY

HENRY F. WARING

Mr. Waring died in Boston, Mass., July 10, 1936, in his sixty-seventh year. He was born in New Brunswick, where he attended the Baptist Seminary of St. John. Later he was graduated from Acadia College from which he also received the degree of master of arts. After graduation from Rochester Theological School, he was ordained to the Baptist ministry, in which he held several pastorates before becoming minister of the First Unitarian Church, Memphis, Tenn., in 1924. In 1930 he was called to the ministry of the church in Norton, Mass., and was made head of the department of religion at Wheaton College.

Mr. Waring's widow, Mrs. Ella Waring, and one son, Waldo, survive him.

SAMUEL BURNS WESTON

Dr. Samuel Burns Weston died in St. Hubert's, New York, on July 15. He was born in Madison, Maine, March 10, 1855. In 1876 Antioch College conferred upon him the degree of A.B. and in 1879 he received the degree of S.T.B. from Harvard. He also studied at Berlin, Leipzig, and Geneva. He was minister of the Unitarian Church in Leicester, Mass., from 1879 to 1881. In 1885 he founded the Ethical Culture Society in Philadelphia and served as its lecturer until 1890, when he became director of the movement; he continued in this office until 1934 when he became director emeritus. In June, 1931, Antioch College conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of the Humanities.

Dr. Weston is survived by his wife and two sons.

JAMES HARCOURT WEST

Mr. West, who died at San Diego, Calif., on July 31, in his eight-first year, was born in Melrose, Mass., on January 13, 1856. He was educated at Tufts Theological School and was ordained to the Unitarian ministry in 1883. He held pastorates at Geneva, Ill.; Duluth, Minn.; Leicester, Mass.; and North Abington, Mass. During these years and those which followed he issued and circulated religious books and pamphlets. For more than fifty years he was among the editorial contributors to Unity, writing also occasionally for The Christian Register. In 1931 his booklet, "Ten Hymns of World Peace," was issued, dedicated to "The Youth of All Lands." His interest in furthering liberal religion and social justice never abated. The later years of his life were spent in California.

In 1883 Mr. West married Cora Livermore, of Spencer, Mass.

JABEZ T. SUNDERLAND, D.D.

Dr. Sunderland died on August 13th at the home of his son in Ann Arbor, Mich. He was born on February 11, 1842, in Yorkshire, England, but was brought to this country when only two years old. He was educated at the University of Chicago, where he received an A.B. degree in 1867 and an A.M. degree in 1869, and at the Baptist Union Theological Seminary, in Chicago, where he received his B. D. degree in 1870. Tufts College conferred upon him the degree of doctor of divinity in 1914.

Dr. Sunderland began his ministry as pastor of a Baptist Church in Milwaukee, Wis. Converted to Unitarianism, he entered upon a long series of pastorates at Northfield, Mass.; Chicago, Ill.; Oakland, Calif.; London, England; Toronto and Ottawa, Canada; Hartford, Conn., and Poughkeepsie, N. Y. During these years of professional work he was active in the service not only of his own churches but of the denomination as a whole. He was a prolific author of books, his most famous work being "The Origin and Character of the Bible," which is still widely read.

In his last years, Dr. Sunderland's prime interest was in the liberation of the people of India. He first went to India in 1895, on a commission from the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. In 1913-14 he was again sent to India and the Far East by the American Unitarian Association, where he lectured widely on educational and religious subjects. But now the political cause had his first allegiance and he returned to America to give his life to the great ideal of independence for India.

JOHN WILLIAM DAY, S.T.D.

Dr. Day died in Kennebunk, Maine, on August 20. He was born in Woburn, Mass., June 13, 1861. He entered the Meadville Theological School in 1881, and at the end of that year was entered in Harvard Divinity School as a special student. After passing special examinations, he entered the senior class in 1884 and was graduated the following year. He preached in Brooklyn, Conn., in the summers of 1884 and 1885 and in 1886 was ordained as minister in Channing Memorial Church, Newport, R. I. The following year he was married to Anne Bigelow, of New York. Later pastorates were at Ithaca, N. Y., Hingham, Mass., St. Louis, Mo.—where he was pastor for twenty-five years—and Kennebunk. From 1933 to the time of his death he was minister emeritus at the latter church. In 1891 the Meadville Theological School conferred upon him the degree of doctor of sacred theology. He made editorial contributions to The Christian Register and his prize-winning sermon on the meaning and place of Unitarianism has wide circulation.

ERNEST ABBOTT CHASE

Rev. Ernest Abbott Chase died September 2 at Brewster, Mass. He was born in Providence, R. I., January 6, 1864. His first pastorate was in the Baptist Church in Westboro, R. I. He also served Baptist churches in Auburn, R. I., Raynham, Mass., West Harwich, Mass., and Brewster. While pastor of the Baptist church in Brewster, he realized that his theological ideas had undergone a profound change and that he could no longer conscientiously serve as minister. It so happened that at this time the pulpit of the First Parish Church, Unitarian, in Brewster, was vacant and he was invited to become the minister of that church. He quietly stepped from the pulpit of the Baptist church, on one side of the road, to the pulpit of the Unitarian church, a short distance away, on the other side, and held the love and respect of his many Baptist friends as long as he lived.

After a short pastorate at Westwood, Mass., he accepted a call to the First Unitarian Congregational Church in Barnstable, Mass., where he served for fifteen years and then retired from the active ministry, making Brewster his home.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Bertha Chase, he is survived by two daughters and two sons.

JOHN C. MITCHELL

Rev. John C. Mitchell died in Boise, Idaho, on September 7, at the age of eighty-three. He was a graduate of Yale University. Ordained in 1885, he had held pastorates in Wilton, N. H.; Lebanon, N. H., and Boise. When he was sixty-two he retired to a ranch near Ustick, Idaho. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Robert Allen, of Pocatello, Idaho.

JOHN HENRY MUELLER

Rev. John Henry Mueller died in Castine, Maine, on September 18. He was born in a mountain village near Zurich, Switzerland. His grandfather had been one of Napoleon's personal guards. Mr. Mueller came to this country at the age of seventeen and found work in the machine shop of an uncle in Pennsylvania. He quickly overcame the handicap of a foreign language, mastered English, and worked his way through Yale, supporting himself largely by tutoring students in German. He was ordained to the ministry in 1889. He was minister of the church in Bloomington, Ill., for twenty years, of the church in Barneveld, N. Y. for six years, and of the church in Castine for fifteen years. He retired in 1934.

ROBERT ALLEN SINGSEN

Rev. Robert Allen Singsen died in Boston, Mass., on October 5, of a heart attack. He was born in Providence, R. I., December 25, 1893, and was graduated from the Meadville Theological School in 1916. At the time of his death he was minister of the First Parish Church in Stowe, Mass. Earlier pastorates were at West Somerville, West Upton, and Christ Church, Dorchester, Mass. He is survived by his widow and a daughter.

ADDISON MOORE, D.D.

Dr. Addison Moore died in Richmond, Va., October 28, at the age of sixty-six. He was born in Dutchess County, N. Y., was graduated from Columbia University in 1892, studied at Colgate University and at Cambridge and Oxford, England, and was ordained to the Baptist ministry in New Haven, Conn. He served as minister of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York, N. Y., and in 1914 assumed the pastorate of the First Unitarian Society of Schenectady, N. Y. In 1919 he left Schenectady to accept a call to the ministry of the First Church in Chestnut Hill, Mass., where he remained until he went to Richmond in 1930. Carson-Newman College, Jefferson City, Tenn., conferred upon him the honorary degree of doctor of divinity.

Dr. Moore is survived by his widow, the former Miss Florence Woolsey, of Jersey City, N. J.

HENRY E. POLLEY

Rev. Henry E. Polley died in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, on November 1. He was born in Oshkosh, April 24, 1872. After graduating from the State Teachers' College, he entered the teaching profession and for several years was principal for the Abbottsford, Wis., High School. At the time of his death he was pastor of the Community Church in Green Bush, Wis. He was in the fellowship of the Wisconsin Universalist Convention and was pastor of "The Little Brick Church on the Hill," a country church about thirty miles from Oshkosh.

He is survived by his widow and one son, Frank Polley, of Chicago.

GEORGE D. RICE

Lieutenant-Colonel George D. Rice, a retired army chaplain, died in Palo Alto, Calif., December 21. He was born in Malden, Mass., January 23, 1861, and was graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. For a number of years he worked in industrial lines. Later he took a special course at Tufts Theological School and was ordained in the Unitarian ministry on January 1, 1889. In 1898 he was commissioned chaplain with the rank of captain in the Sixth Massachusetts Infantry, and was commissioned lieutenant in the 26th Infantry, U. S. Volunteers in 1899. Two years later he was commissioned chaplain with the rank of captain in the United States Army when he was assigned to the 27th Infantry. He served as chaplain in campaigns in Cuba, Mexico, and in the Philippines, and saw service overseas during the World War. He was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross by the war department for heroic service in the Spanish-American War. After being assigned to posts at Fort Sheridan, Ill., and Camp Columbia, Cuba, he was promoted to the grade of major in 1911, and to the rank of lieutenant colonel on June 4, 1920. The following April he was relieved from active duty.

His widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Rice, survives him.

FRANCIS GREENWOOD PEABODY, D.D.

Dr. Francis Greenwood Peabody died at his home in Cambridge, Massachusetts, on December 28, 1936. He was born in Boston, December 4, 1847, the son of Rev. Ephraim Peabody, the minister of King's Chapel, and his wife, Mary Jane Derby. He entered Harvard with the class of 1869. From college he went to the Harvard Divinity School, graduating in 1872 with the degrees of A.M. and S.T.B. The same year he married Miss Cora Weld of Boston. A year and a half were spent in travel and study in Europe, the greater part of this time being spent at the University of Halle, in Germany. In 1874 he accepted a call to the First Parish in Cambridge and was ordained minister on March 31. He resigned in 1879 on account of ill health. He was appointed lecturer on ethics and homiletics at Harvard for the year 1880-81 and Parkman Professor of Theology the next year. In 1881-82 he lectured in the Divinity School on "The History of Ethics," and also, once a week, on "Practical Ethics." The latter was a course on the application of Christian principles to social problems. In 1886 he became Plummer Professor of Christian Morals, with charge of the college chapel. He remained in this office until January, 1913, when he became professor emeritus. The substance of his teaching eventually appeared in a series of volumes,—Jesus Christ and the Social Question, Jesus Christ and Christian Character, The Approach to the Social Question, and The Christian Life in the Modern World. These books brought Dr. Peabody wide recognition and many friendships both in this country and in Europe.

In 1905-6 Dr. Peabody went to Berlin as the first exchange professor from America. He also visited Japan, as Commissioner for the American Unitarian Association. He was given an honorary doctorate of divinity by Yale in 1887; the degree of LL.D. by Western Reserve in 1907; and the degree of S.T.D. by Harvard in 1909.

Dr. Peabody is survived by a daughter, Miss Gertrude W. Peabody, and a son, W. Rodman Peabody.

JAMES CAMERON DUNCAN, D.D.

Dr. James Cameron Duncan died suddenly on February 8 at his home in Clinton, Mass. He was born in Rothes, Morayshire, Scotland, on July 8, 1860. He came to the United States in 1879 and, having determined to enter the ministry, began his studies at Meadville Theological School from which he was graduated with the class of 1885. He then took a resident graduate course at Harvard Divinity School. He was ordained and installed as minister of the Unitarian church in Clinton on June 17, 1886. On October 18 and 19, 1936, the observance of a half-century of service in that church was held. This is said to be the longest pastorate in the history of the Unitarian denomination, with one possible exception. Forty-three years after his graduation the Meadville Theological Shool honored him with the degree of doctor of divinity.

Immediately after Dr. Duncan's settlement in Clinton he became connected with the Worcester County Conference of Unitarian Churches and was its secretary for three decades. He was also active in the work of the Worcester County Ministers' Association. For four years he was elected by the Unitarian Ministerial Union to represent that body on the board of directors of the American Unitarian Association, and was sent by the Association on a missionary tour of the country.

Dr. Duncan is survived by two sons, Robert Fuller Duncan, of Scarsdale, N. Y., and James Cameron Duncan, Jr., of Clinton.

JAMES HOUGHTON

Rev. James Houghton died in Denver, Colo., February 15. Mr. Houghton was born in Cleveland Townships, Whitley Co., Ind., April 6, 1861. He was educated at Indiana State Normal School and taught in Indiana and western Kansas for ten years before entering the Universalist ministry. He received Unitarian fellowship May 21, 1928. He served as missionary and pastor of churches in Indiana, Iowa, Ohio, Missouri, Kansas and Colorado, and was southwest superintendent of Universalist churches for nine years.

ELIZABETH MARQUAND

Rev. Elizabeth Marquand died at her home at Curzon's Mill, Newburyport, Mass., on February 18. She was born in Boston, June 26, 1865. For several years she was active in the work of the General Alliance and finally studied for the ministry at the Pacific Unitarian School for the Ministry, graduating in 1927. She was ordained in Berkeley, Calif., on May 6, 1927. Her only pastoral service was with the church in Pembroke, Mass., from 1929 to 1930.

OTTO E. DUERR

Rev. Otto E. Duerr, army reserve chaplain with the rank of captain in the U. S. Army, died at Fort Banks Base Hospital, Winthrop, Mass., on April 8. For the past two years he had been assigned to a C.C.C. detachment at Fort Devens and he became ill while serving there He was born in Mansfield, Ohio, November 16, 1881, and attended Kenyon Military Academy and Haverford College, Penna. He studied for the ministry at the Pacific Unitarian School for the Ministry at Berkeley, and was ordained in 1909. His first pastorate was in the Unitarian church at Everett, Washington. Later pastorates were at Melrose and Lancaster, Mass.; Laconia, N. H.; Waterville, Me., and Templeton, Mass. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Florence Duerr, two daughters and a son.

WILLIAM F. SKERRYE

Rev. William F. Skerrye died suddenly in Belfast, Maine, on April 16. He was born in Liverpool, N. S., October 31, 1868. Soon after his father's death his mother moved to Lawrence, Mass., and shortly thereafter Mr. Skerrye entered Andover Academy. From Andover he entered Harvard and then went to Oberlin Seminary, Oberlin, Ohio, to prepare for the Congregational ministry. His first parish was in Provincetown, Mass., where he was minister of a Congregational church. In 1899 he went to Saco, Maine, as pastor of the Unitarian church. In 1906 he went to Templeton, where he served as minister of the Unitarian church for fifteen years. When the First Congregational Church and the First Unitarian Church of Belfast consolidated, Mr. Skerrye was chosen to be the first minister and assumed his duties in 1922.

He is survived by his widow and two sons.

HENDRIK VAN OMMEREN

Rev. Hendrik Van Ommeren died at the home of his son in Cashmere, Washington, on May 11. He was born in The Netherlands March 29, 1862 and was educated at the University of Michigan. He studied for the ministry at the Reformed Episcopal Theological School and was ordained in Philadelphia on February 6, 1886. His Unitarian pastorates were in Nantucket, Mass., and Gardner, Mass. After serving the latter church for ten years he retired in 1932 and went to Seattle, Washington. He had supplied the pulpit of the University Unitarian Church of Seattle but was not settled as minister of the church.

Mr. Van Ommeren is survived by his widow and one son.

BEN FRANKLIN ALLEN

Rev. Ben Franklin Allen died in Boston on June 1. He was born in Camden, Tenn., Jan. 9, 1891. Graduating from the Meadville Theological School in 1918, he was settled as minister of the church in Hackensack, N. J. On October 17, 1920, he was installed as minister of the First Parish Church, Needham, Mass., where he remained for eight years. Upon leaving Needham he established and conducted a travel bureau which grew rapidly and became widely known.

SUMMARY

No statistics are included from starred churches or summer congregations; the former because they are inactive, and the latter because most of the attendants are from other churches and their inclusion would pad the figures unduly. Preaching stations are not included in the list of churches, nor their figures in the pages of statistics. The returns from a few federated churches include members of other bodies but the number is small and does not materially change the totals. These figures are also included in the year book of other denominations represented in each federation.

Total number in list of churches	393
Summer congregations	13
Starred churches, inactive	25
Active churches	355
